BY THY RIVERS GENTLY FLOWING,
ILLINOIS, ILLINOIS,
WE WILL PLEDGE TO THEE-
WHERE E'ER WE BE
FOR GOOD OLD ILLINOIS.

The 1922 ILLIO

The University of Illinois has entered this year upon a period of active and vigorous development. The restrictions of war, the difficulties of reorganization, are, for the most part, behind; the prospect ahead is one of rapid and wholesome expansion. In the last decade Illinois has doubled her usefulness; in the decade just begun, that usefulness will doubtless be doubled again. Thus it is that the spirit of Illinois appears to-day more markedly than ever before, as the spirit of generous and productive service. And it is the hope of the editors of this 1922 Illio that this volume, inspired by the University, may reflect something of Illinois' finest spirit.

DEDICATION

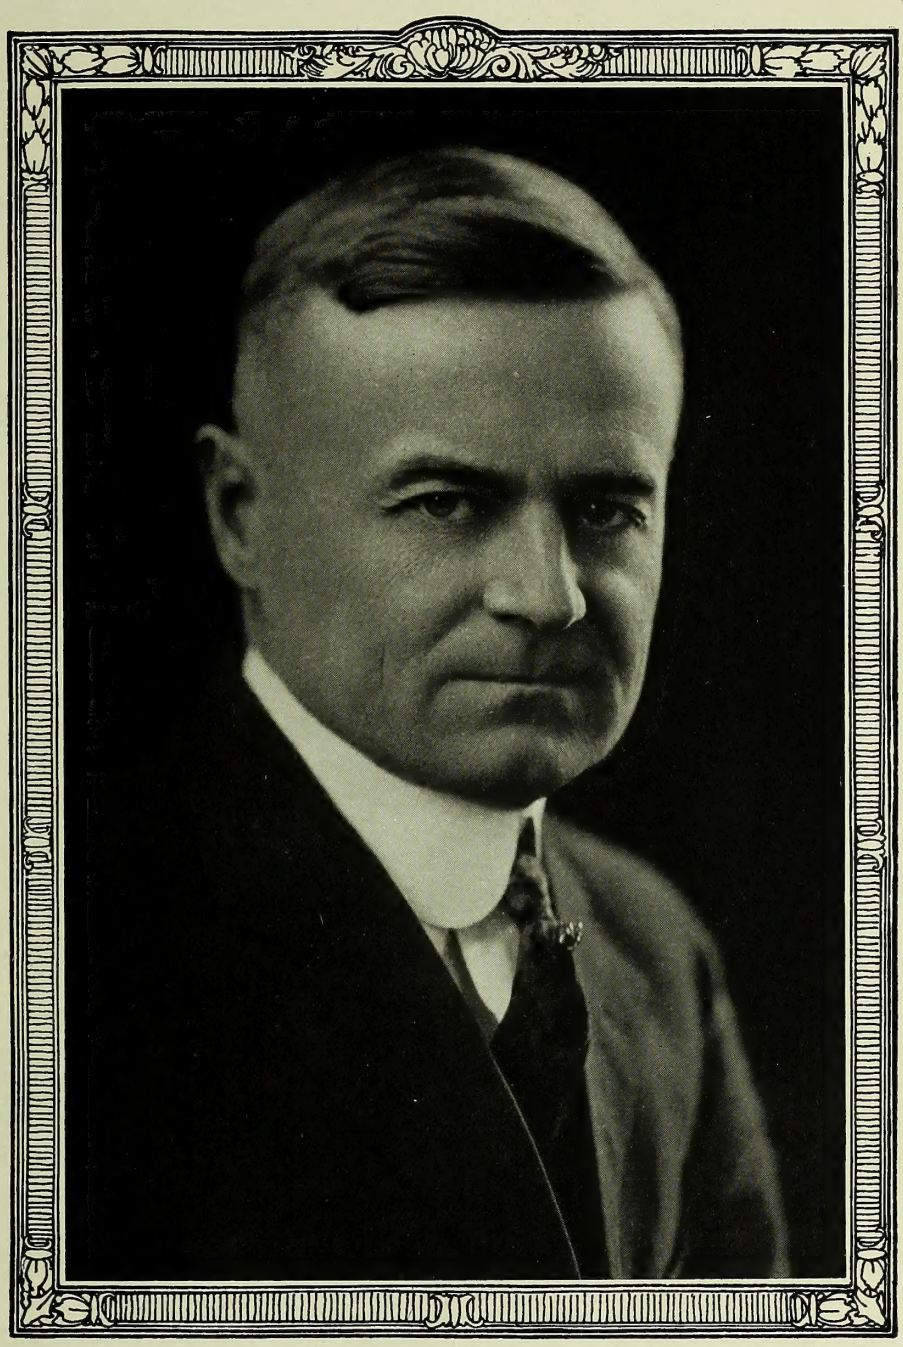

To Robert C. Zuppke, Ph.B.

Who, as varsity foot-ball coach, has, in the past eight years, brought three Conference Championships and one tie to Illinois; and who, in so doing, has developed to the highest possible degree the athletic prowess of our alma mater, and has spread the story of her achievements throughout the land.

Who has given us a distinguished example of those rare qualities of sportsmanship in which the spirit of fight-to-win may be fused in the ability to accept defeat generously and gracefully.

Who has blended the spirit of fair play and the energy of an alert vigorous personality to produce the finer edge on what we call Illinois Spirit, we dedicate the 1922 Illio.

DEAN THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
The Dean of Men

Even in an institution as large as the University of Illinois it is possible to give some sympathetic regard to the individual, to know how and where he lives and with whom he associates, to have time to listen to his particular problem and to help him to solve it. It has been my particular business to try to make living conditions in and about the University as wholesome as possible and to try to help every man in the undergraduate body to become a thoroughly good citizen.

THE DEAN OF WOMEN.

DEAN MASON

The standard of the social life of any community is no higher than that of its women. The 2302 women students enrolled at the University of Illinois make the social standard of the 9493 enrolled students. To do her part well, each woman must strive to be "cultivated and disciplined in mind, superb in physique, gracious and courteous in manner, unselfish, honest, self-controlled, and tolerant." It is the ultimate aim of the work of the Dean of Women to help every woman on the campus to approach this ideal. To this end the Dean of Women is accessible to every undergraduate woman at any time, any day throughout the year, for any need, and seeks a personal acquaintance with each individual woman student in order that she may serve her interests best.

Ruby R. C. Mason

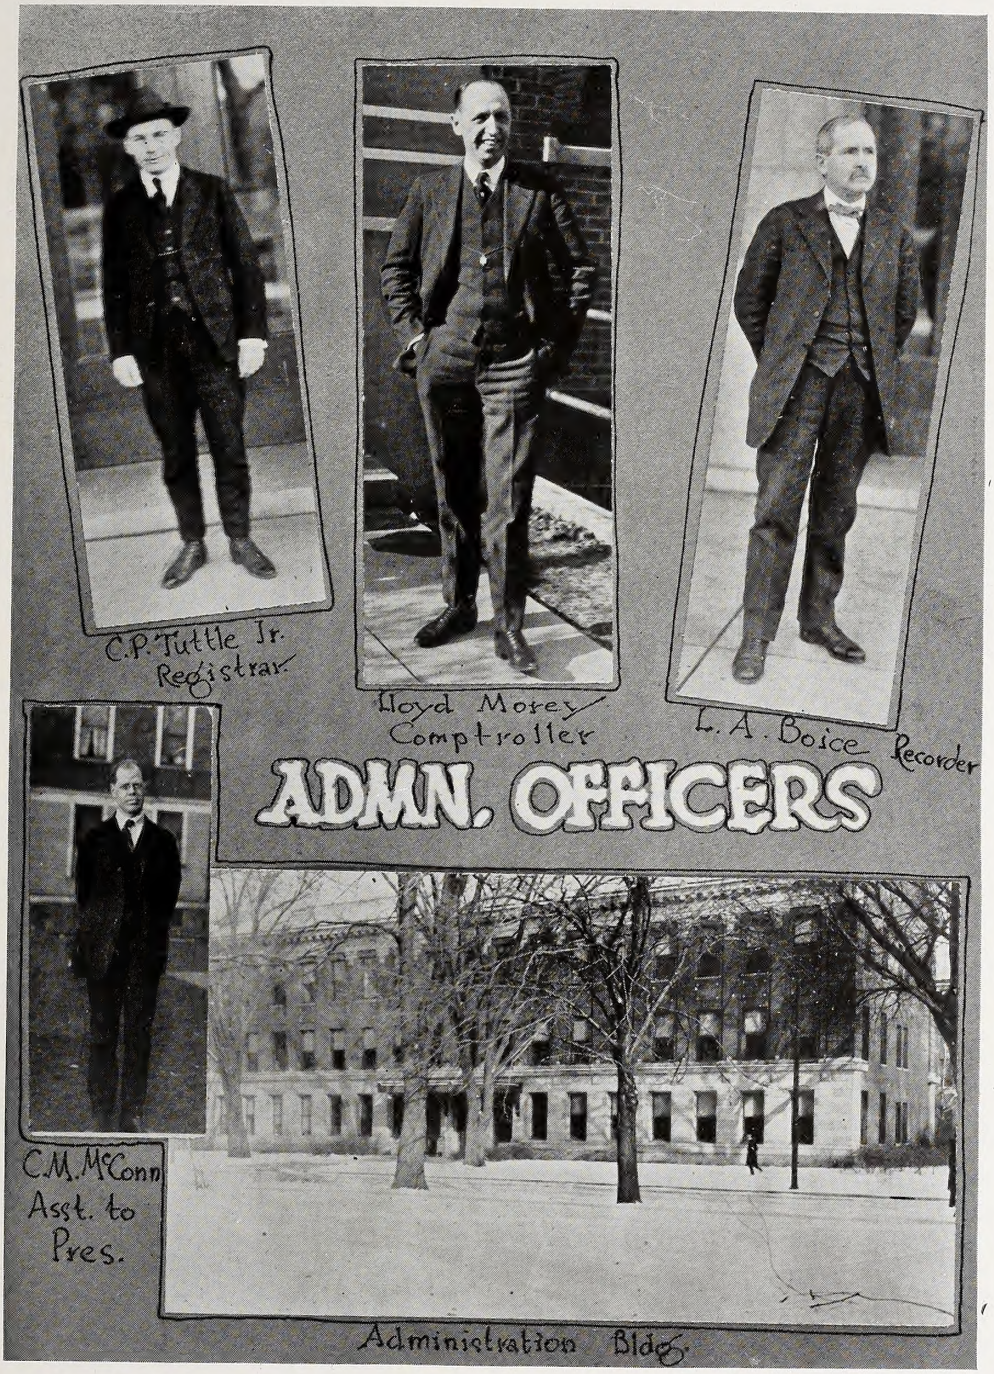

THE ASSISTANT DEAN OF MEN.

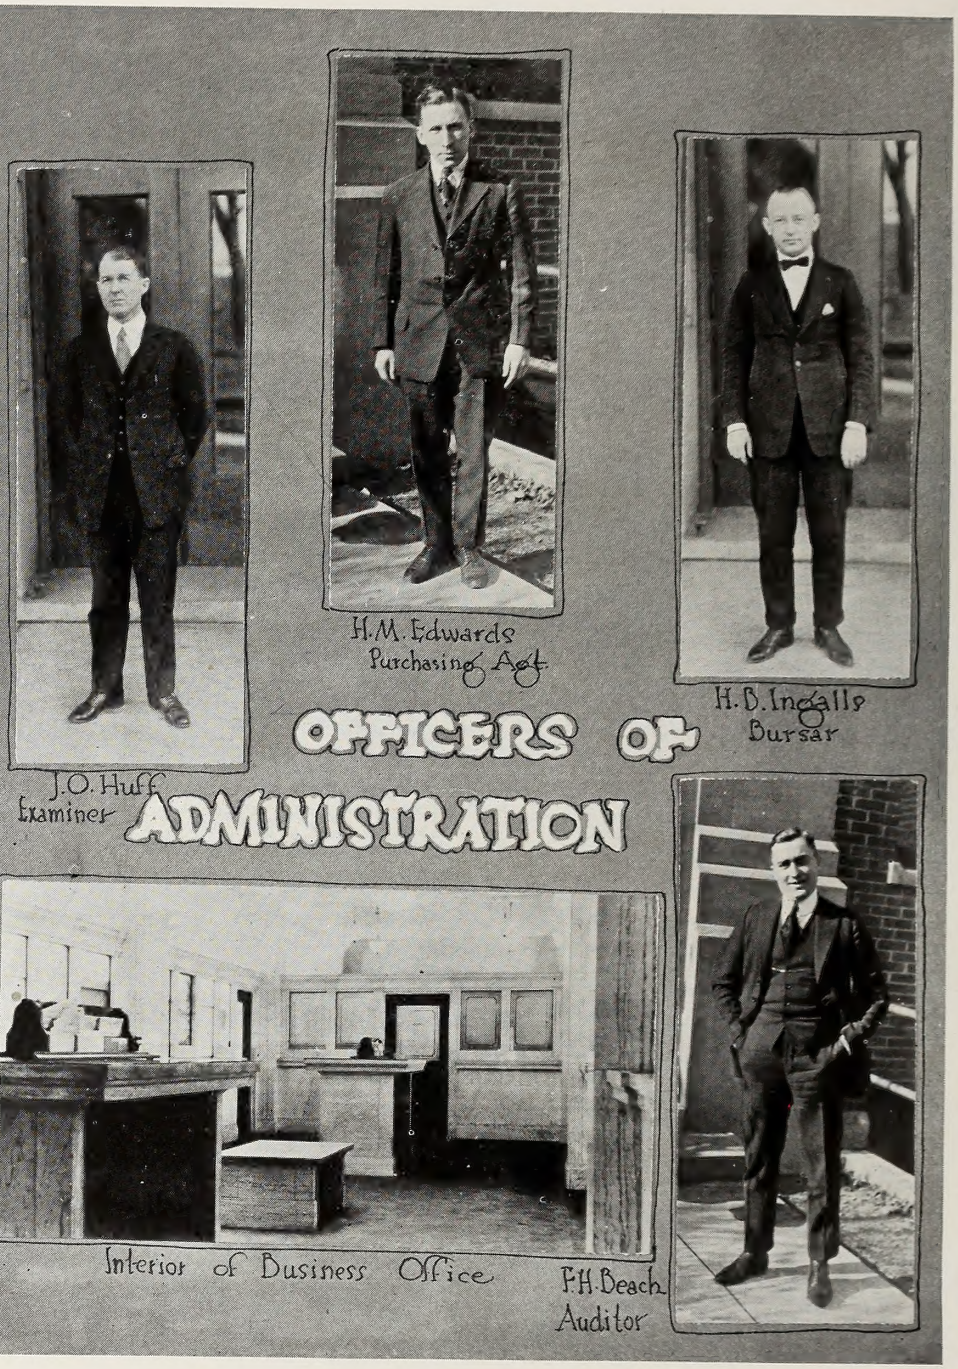

I count it a great privilege to have spent a while in Dean Clark's office. There is the place where the seeming harshness of a great, impersonal University is counteracted by Dean Clark's real affection for the individual man. He wants to know and is willing to help every one of them.

THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES.

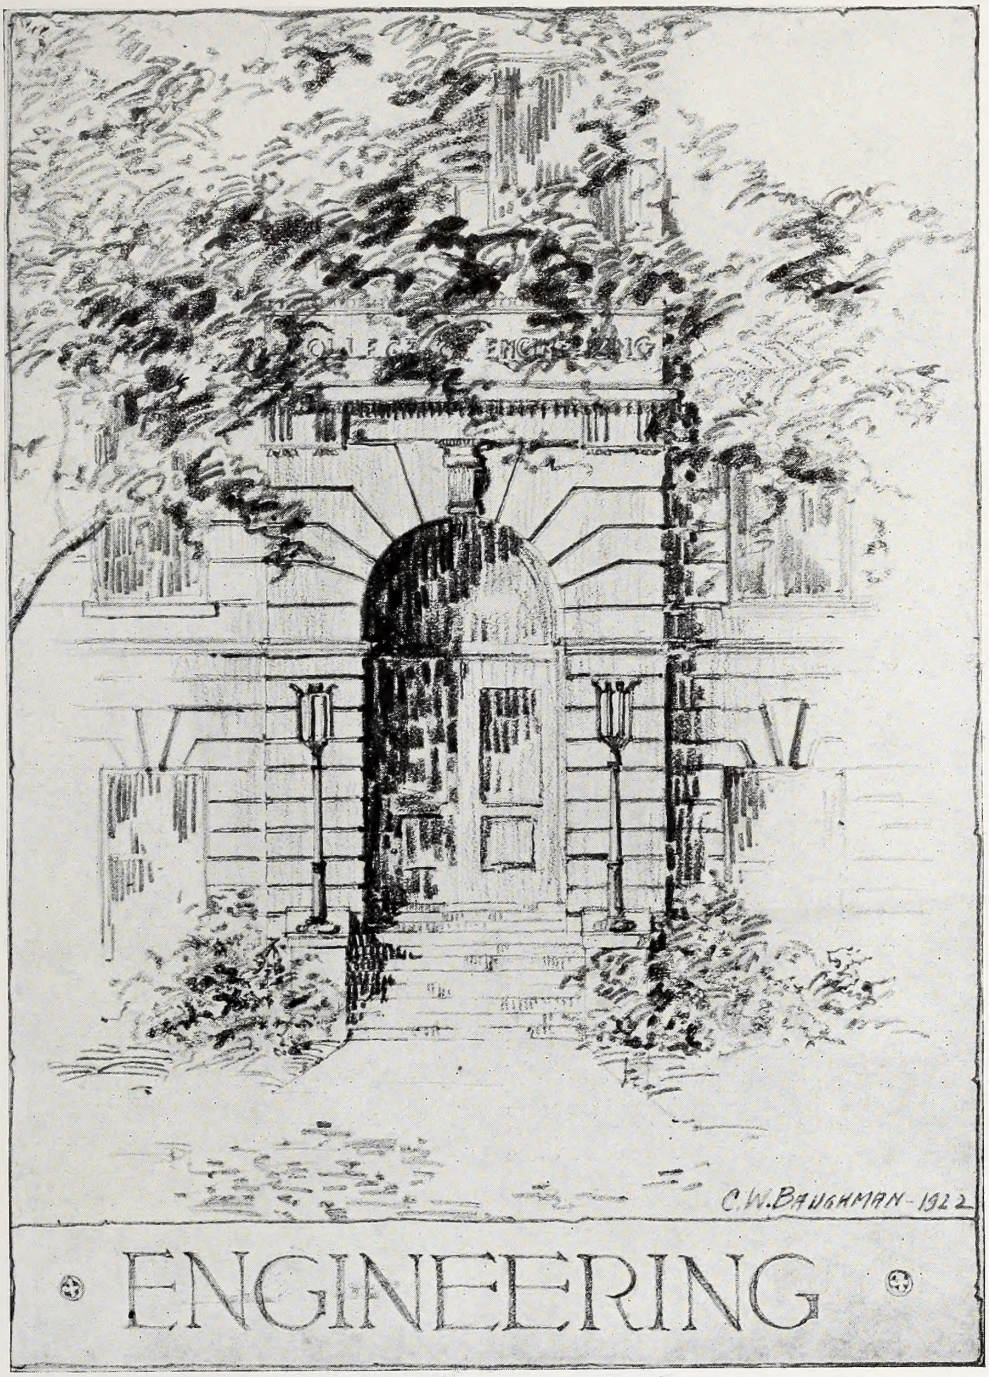

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences is the central liberalizing division of the University. It sets itself the task of serving three groups of students: (1) those who are registered in the College, to the number of 2,535, who will obtain here both their general and specialized training for the A.B. degree with a wide range of major subjects from the classics through history and botany to economic entomology and journalism; (2) those students who seek preliminary training for professions such as medicine, law, and chemistry; and (3) those students registered in other colleges who must take their fundamental work in English, mathematics, and chemistry in this College. More than one-half of the burden of teaching in this College arises from the third group. Similarly the work done by students in the Graduate School is under the direction in very large part, of the Faculty of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences in such departments as chemistry, English, zoology, and mathematics.

ENGINEERING

DEAN C. R. RICHARDS

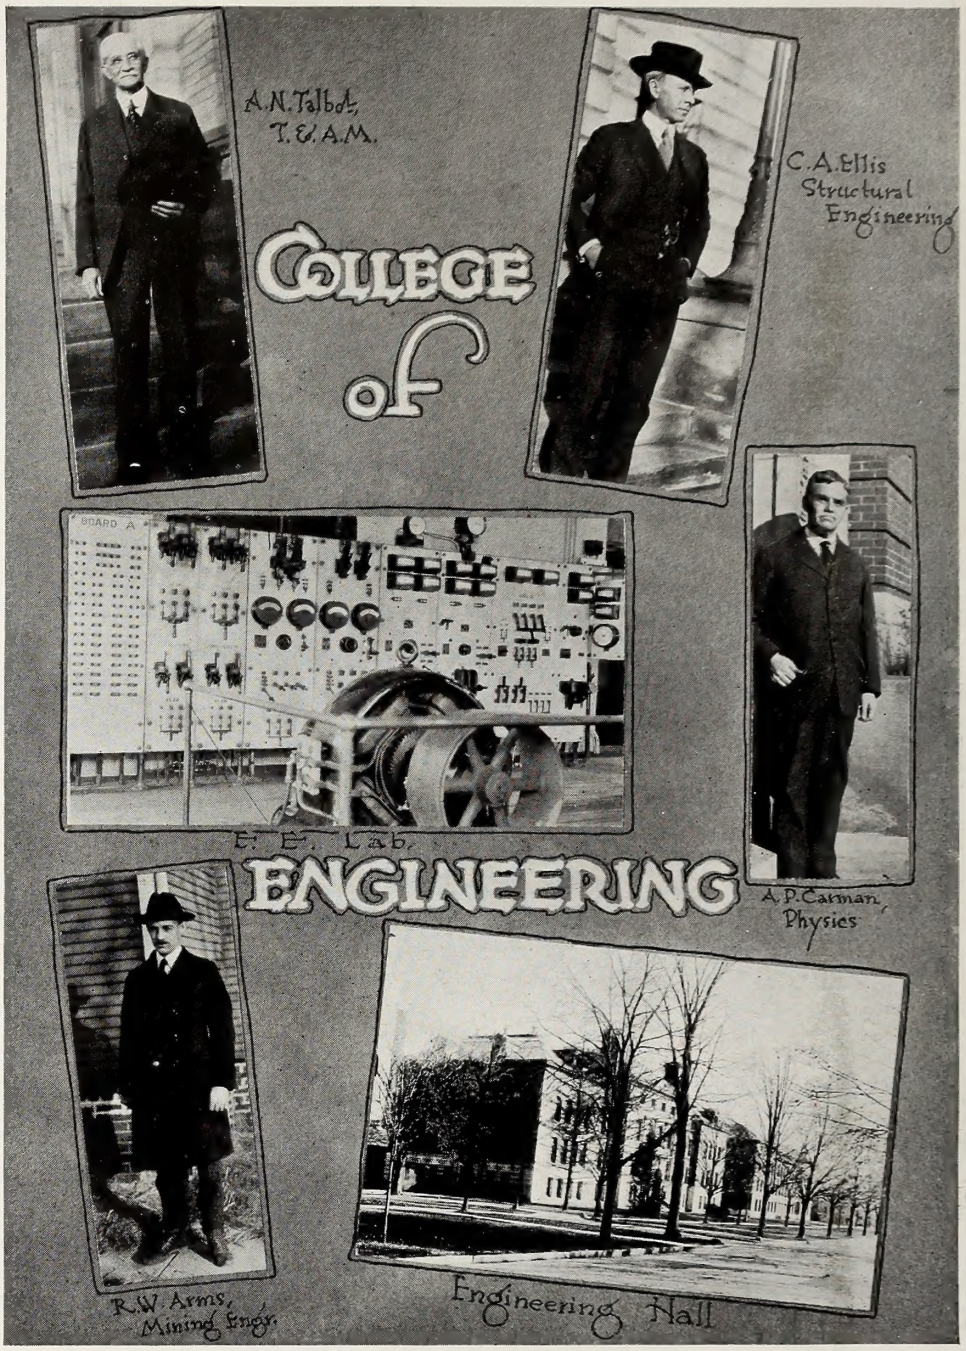

THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING.

The College of Engineering and the Engineering Experiment Station of the University of Illinois occupy a distinguished position among American colleges of technology. The former is ranked among the first three or four institutions of its kind in the character of its work, the successful achievements of its graduates, and in the number of students; the latter stands first among the agencies maintained by educational institutions for industrial research and the dissemination of knowledge. Since the industrial development of the State and the Nation has been stimulated through the efforts of the graduates of the College of Engineering and the results of scientific investigations conducted by the Engineering Experiment Station, it is believed that the public will approve the efforts of the University to strengthen and still further develop the work of these agencies.

AGRICULTURE

THE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE.

It was Dr. Hopkins of Illinois who first pointed out the need of a permanent agriculture in a developing civilization and it was he who demonstrated that a permanent agriculture is possible only as we add from year to year as much plant building material as is taken out of the soil both by cropping and by natural processes, such as leeching—a little more indeed in order to be safe.

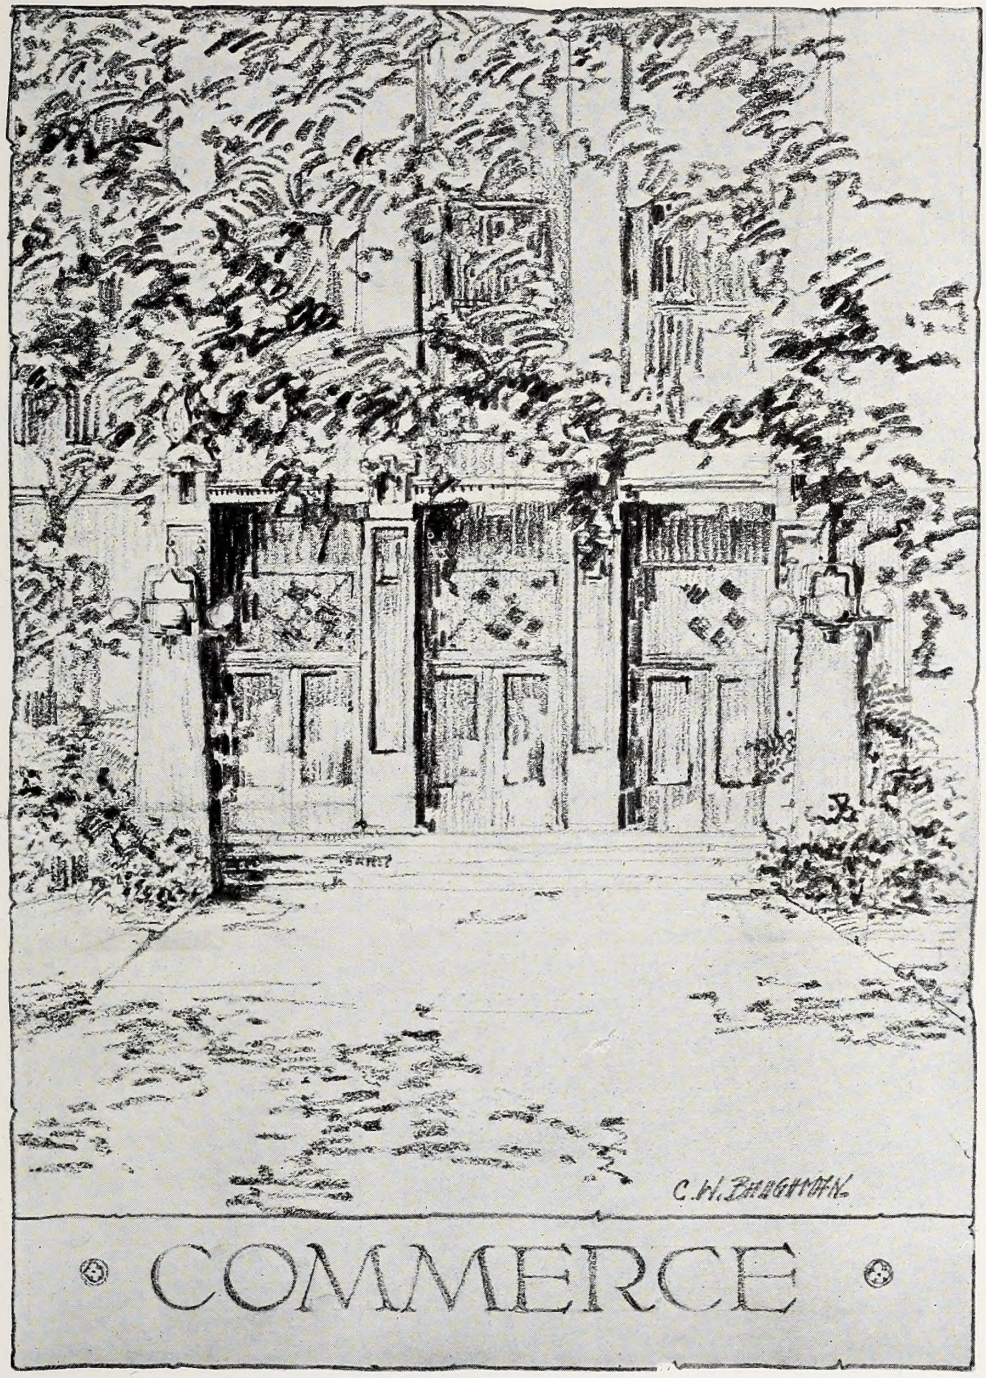

It is this conception of agriculture to which Illinois stands committed, as the only guarantee that those who may come after us shall be sufficiently fed and clothed to maintain our civilization.

DEAN C. M. THOMPSON

THE COLLEGE OF COMMERCE.

The College of Commerce and Business Administration is concerned primarily in developing prospective business executives. To that end students in this college are required to divide their time among fundamental business subjects, technical subjects, and the more liberal subjects such as language, mathematics, natural and physical science, and the social sciences. Each student is grounded in economics and finance, in accountancy and statistics, in business law and business administration. In addition he must specialize somewhat in the particular field in which his chief interest lies. Students in the foreign commerce curriculum, for example, give attention to the principles and technique of foreign trade, to history, to modern languages, to diplomatic procedure and practice, and to international law. Such a scheme, it is expected, will assist each graduate to succeed both as a business man and as a citizen.

LAW

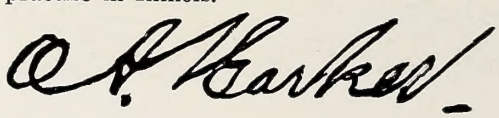

ACTING DEAN JUDGE HARKER

THE COLLEGE OF LAW.

The American law school is the best possible nursery of legal education. The idea which once prevailed that the only practical method of qualifying for the bar was by reading in the office of a practicing lawyer, has long since passed. Method of instruction in the better schools of today differs greatly from that which prevailed forty years ago. The case method has supplanted the text book method as a mode of study. This Law School uses that method, and, with the better schools of the country, requires of candidates for a law degree four years work in an accredited high school and two years of academic work in some reputable college or university. Its main purposes are the development of intellectual powers and reasoning habits; the acquisiiton of well-ordered knowledge of fundamental principles; and the development of true professional character.

In courses of substantive law the curriculum is the same as that of the better law schools of the American Association. In procedure courses the local law is emphasized, as most of the students expect to practise in Illinois.

EDUCATION

DEAN C. E. CHADSAY

The need for university trained men and women who have secured specific professional training for work in the teaching profession was never felt more keenly than it is today. The College of Education has been organized to meet the steadily increasing demand for professionally trained educators who have had the advantage of a university background. The recognition of education as a profession comparable to that of medicine and law necessitates increased professional opportunities. City superintendents and high school principals are assured that their prospective teachers if graduates of the College of Education have not only the professional training but the academic preparation fundamental to effective teaching. Boards of education look to the College of Education for the preparation of superintendents and principals.

LIBRARY

DIRECTOR P. L. WINSOR

FRANCIS SIMPSON
Assistant Director

The University of Illinois Library, including the departmental and college libraries, buys and catalogs new books and keeps in order on the shelves about 450,000 volumes, 100,000 pamphlets, besides sheet music, photographs, maps, etc.; this requires intelligent and careful work by a specially trained staff numbering over fifty. Another obvious function of this staff is to give assistance of varying kind and degree to students and faculty.

The Library School trains college men and women for librarianship; over 300 have completed the two years course and received the B.L.S. degree, and as many more have completed only one year of the course. These graduates and former students are found in nearly every state, working in public, college, university, normal school, high school, and business libraries.

MUSIC

A. A. HARDING

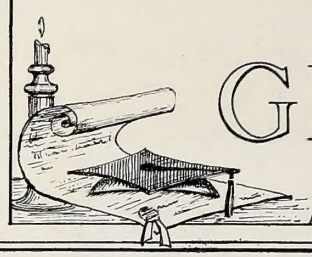

DIRECTOR J. L. ERB

The School of Music has two functions. The first is to provide trained teachers, directors and performers. The second of almost equal importance is to bring to the students of the University the cultural influences of music. An education which does not provide for leisure and social enjoyment and for inspiration is only in part an education. The School of Music offers to the students opportunity to add these important elements to their professional and vocational training. A wide veriety of elective courses, both theoretical and practical, is open to all students of the University, and a considerable proportion receive credit toward their degree. Nearly one hundred recitals of various kinds are given free every year, including the weekly organ recitals and student and Faculty recitals, as well as the choral, orchestral and band concerts. It is the endeavor of the School of Music Faculty to cooperate in every legitiate musical enterprise that affects the student-body in any way.

GRADUATE

ACTING DEAN A. H. DANIELS

The Graduate School represents the organized efforts and resources of the University for the purpose of giving opportunities for the most advanced study and for the promotion of research These two functions, however, are by no means separate, for the spirit of research is the life of graduate study. The ideal of graduate work is one and the same for all graduate students. Some are fitting themselves for higher teaching and administrative positions. Others are looking forward to careers in the fields of business, industry, engineering and the several professions. But all are educated in the methods and materials of their subjects so that they may become not only experts and authorities but also independent workers in their chosen fields.

MEDICINE

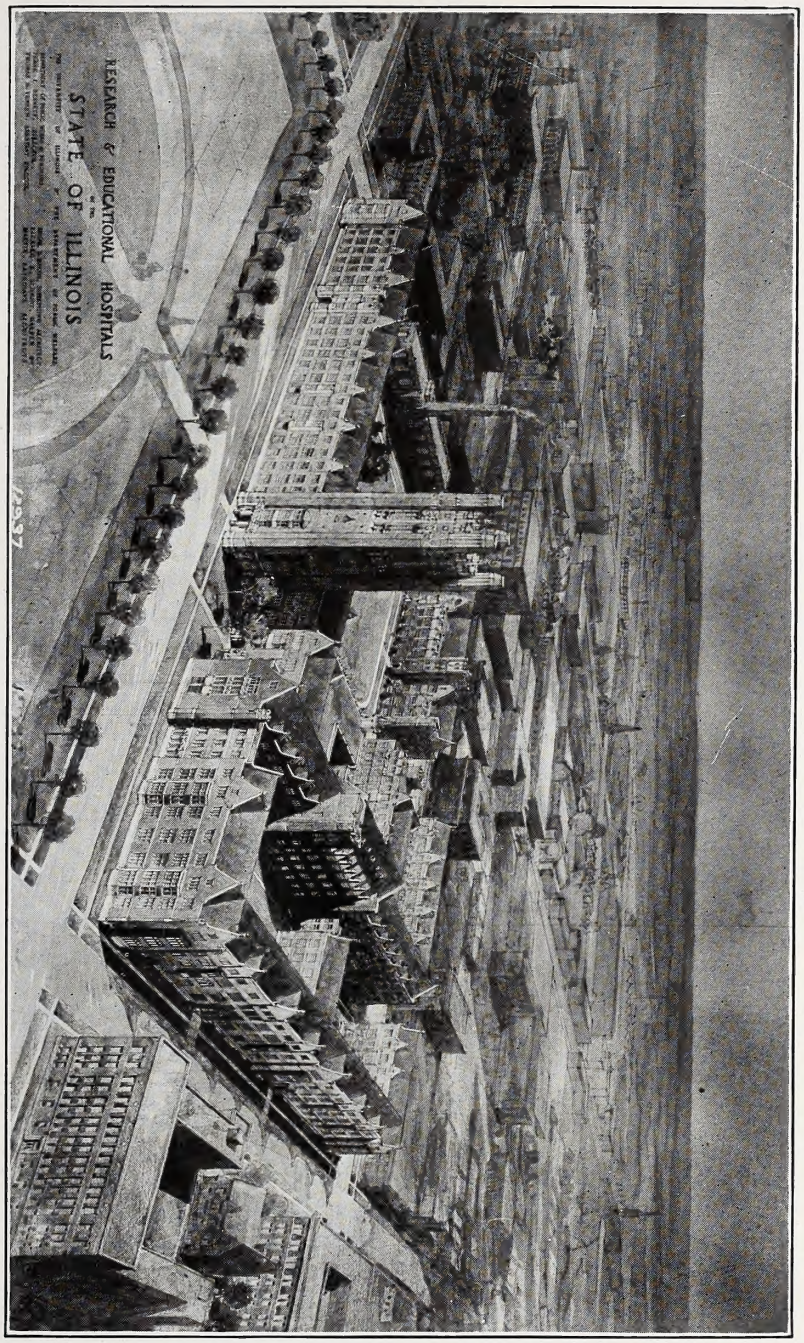

It is a grand and noble work to give time and strength to the alleviation of pain and the cure of disease; it is a far grander and nobler task to teach people to live so that pain and disease will not come upon them. If it be humane for a commonwealth to give custodial care and treatment to its poor who are suffering from physical or mental diseases it surely is something higher to inaugurate work for the prevention of these diseases.

No one who has given consideration to the problem of housing and caring for the sick poor of the state, can escape the conclusion of the Director of the State Department of Public Welfare, that we must unite our state medical agencies in a greater organization which will begin, without delay, the study of the sources of the streams of human disease which threaten to submerge our commonwealth. The cooperative plan, proposed by the Department of Public Welfare, met with most hearty approval by the University of Illinois and in July 1919 they agreed to a plan of cooperation and differentiation, with the following objects in view; to construct and maintain a great group of hospitals and institutes in the medical center of Chicago, where laboratories, libraries, and medical skill can be readily obtained; to provide medical treatment for the sick poor of the state; to give young men and women medical education, and training, such that they will become active soldiers in the warfare for the prevention as well as the cure of disease; to help practicing physicians of the state to keep in touch with the latest and best methods of preventing and curing human ailments; to tell the people of the state how to keep themselves physically efficient. The greatest object is to find and check at their sources the streams of human wreckage which are overflowing the hospitals, asylums, and prisons of the state.

THE PROPOSED BUILDING FOR THE COLLEGE OF MEDICINE.

PROPOSED MEDICAL COLLEGE GROUP.

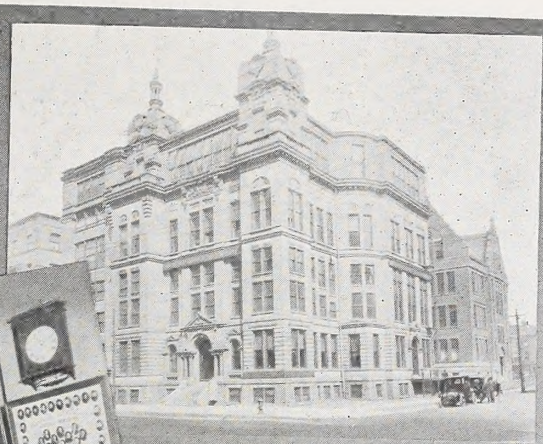

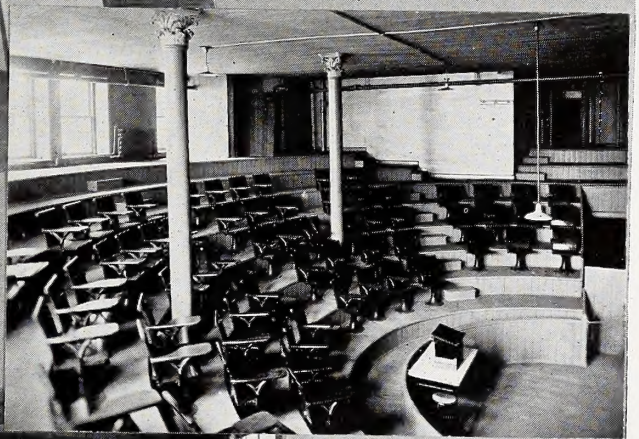

The Board of Trustees has approved the recommendation of the faculty of the College of Dentistry requiring one year of college for admission to the dental curriculum in 1921. This is a most significant and far reaching departure from traditional dental education. It is hoped that two years of college may be required not later than 1925, at which time the dental student will answer to the same requirement for admission to the dental curriculum as is now imposed on the medical student. When these two groups of students are on the same academic plane, it is the hope to make dentistry a specialty of medicine with a common degree, doctor of medicine. The two groups will follow a common curriculum, covering the fundamental sciences, and general medical subjects. The student electing dentistry as a specialty will, in addition to his general training, take a course in dentistry. When this change has been brought about the student will be, in theory and practice, a physician and will functionate in dentistry as a medical specialist.

F. G. MOOREHEAD, Dean.

COLLEGE OF DENTISTRY

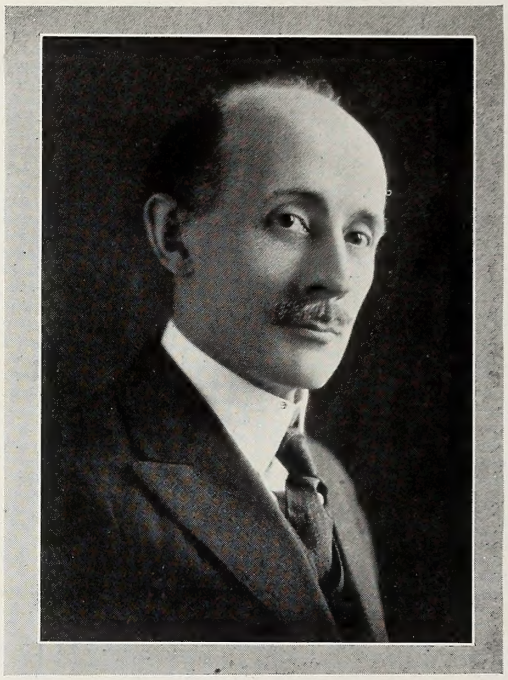

PHARMACY

Like the other departments of the University, the School of Pharmacy has been filled to its capacity during the last two years, in fact it has been necessary each year to turn away late-comers through lack of accommodations for them. The enrollment of 210 students fills each laboratory and requires the division of the first-year class into three sections in order that the laboratory courses may be properly presented.

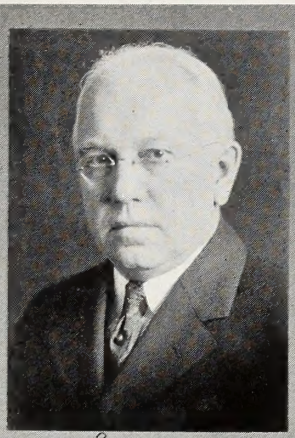

The School of Pharmacy is now the only recognized school of its kind in the state and since graduation from a recognized school of pharmacy is required by law it is the only avenue of admittance to the pharmaceutical profession in Illinois. It is to be expected, then, that the applications for admission to the school of pharmacy will increase year by year and it is the earnest hope of the faculty and alumni of the school that greater facilities may be secured so that it may not be necessary to compel young women and young men to leave the state in order to secure their training.

Plans are being made looking to the practical training of the students of the School of Pharmacy in the dispensing of bona fide prescriptions of physicians in connection with the large dispensary which will be an important feature of the State Hospital now under construction in the old Cub ball park. The thought is to have the senior students in the school of pharmacy dispense the prescriptions in the out-patient department under the careful supervision of a trained pharmacist. If this plan is successfully put in operation it will afford training of a most valuable kind, especially to those students who enter the school directly from high school and have had little or no drug store experience—a class of students that has increased markedly in recent years.

THE ILLINOIS UNION

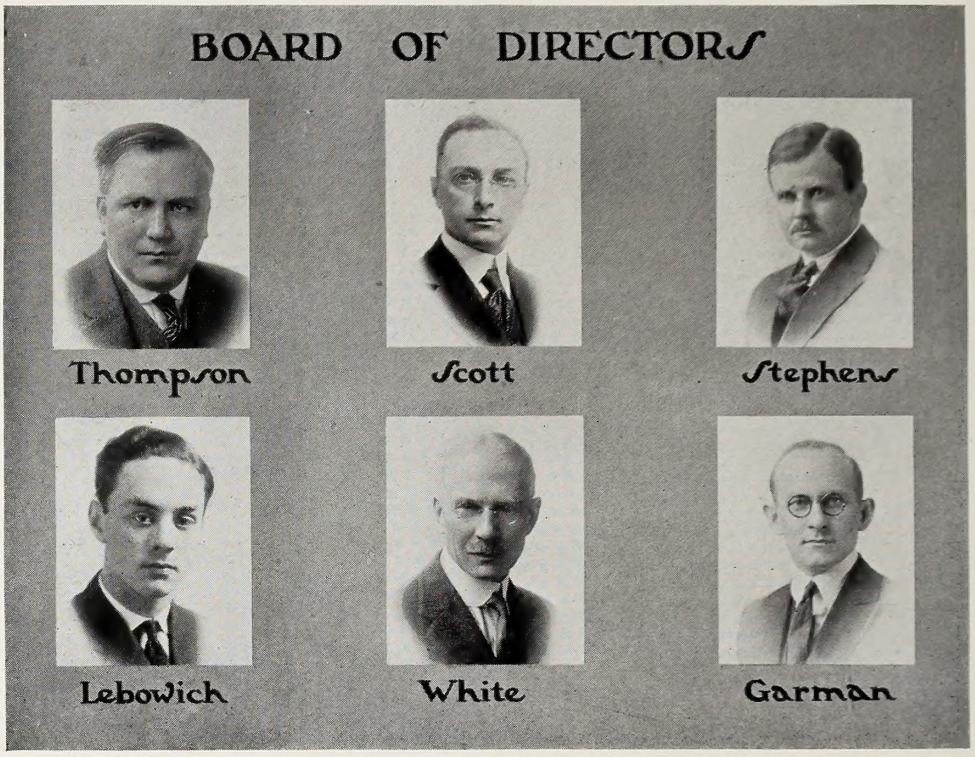

"THE UNION OF ILLINOIS HEARTS AND HANDS FOREVER."

This was the ideal back of the founding of the Illinois Union, eleven years ago. President James on coming here in 1904 told the students they should have a Union; five years later Professor Breckenridge gave further movement to the idea, and the organization soon became a going concern with 2,000 men enrolled. Since then it has been active in many kinds of student affairs; it gives an opera annually, promotes and conducts Homecoming every fall, and has in charge the weekly dances given for students in College and Bradley Halls.

The men behind the Union look forward to the time when it will be even more of an all-Illinois affair than it is now; when it will combine into one big, efficient society a multitude of interests and responsibilities now widely scattered through many smaller societies. It has even been suggested that the Union include the Alumni Association and perhaps the Athletic Association—in truth, the entire Illini world.

THE HONOR COMMISSION

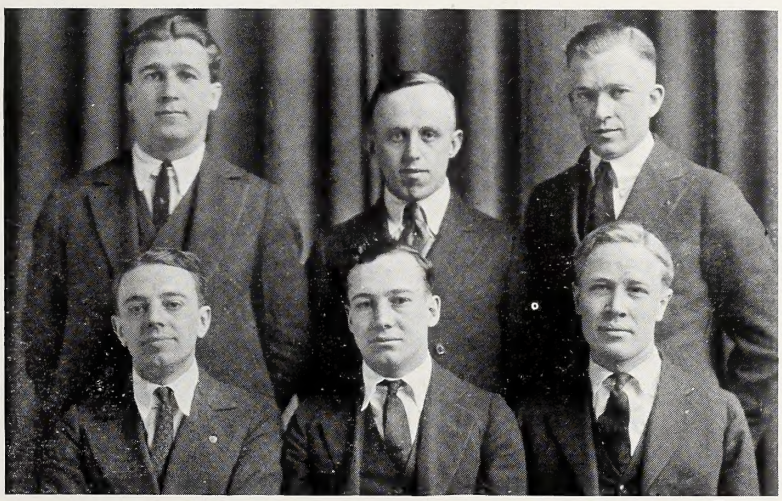

Founded in the Spring of 1919 by an overwhelming vote of the student body the Honor System is now completing its second successful year at the University of Illinois. It is a young tradition but a tradition that promises to grow in the history of the school.

With the installation of the Honor System has departed the tenseness, the strained atmosphere of the examination room with the patrolling proctors craning their necks over student shoulders for evidence of dishonesty. Students at Illinois no longer tolerate "cribbing."

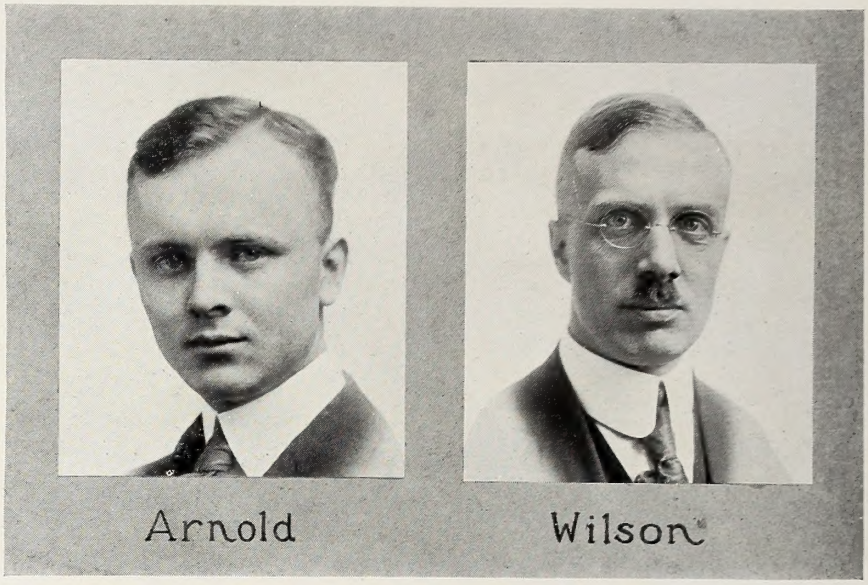

Significant is the fact that, as the institution becomes more thoroughly established, the cases of dishonesty grow fewer. The majority of the cases of dishonesty on quizzes have resulted in convictions obtained by the students. In the past year not one student but half a dozen students have been responsible for the conviction in each case.

Of the present Honor Commission, E. T. Johnson, R. H. Fletcher, and R. C. Preble are serving their fourth semester and will graduate in June. D. K. Malcomson who is serving his second semester will also graduate. Of the junior members, H. N. Yates is also serving a second semester. E. K. Farrand and M. M. Olander are completing their first term.

The moment a student leaves the University he comes into the sphere of the Alumni Association. He looks to it for help in finding other graduates, for help in organizing Illini clubs, for any information whatever about the vast Illinois family scattered all over the world. The Alumni Association arranges the reunions and other alumni affairs at Commencement, compiles and publishes the Alumni Quarterly and Fortnightly Notes (including the war directories), The Alumni Record, and indexes of thousands of Illini who did not graduate. The secretary of the Association is on the third floor of the Administration Building, where all visiting Illini will always find a hearty welcome.

The Alumni Quarterly and Fortnightly Notes
(The "A.Q.F.N.")

Founded in 1907 as the Alumni Quarterly; combined with Fortnightly Notes in 1913 and now published every two weeks from October to July, inclusive. It carries news of the University and of alumni to Illini everywhere. Secretaries of the 48 classes and of the 150 Illini clubs and groups work with the editor to make the "A.Q.F.N." as it is called, representative of the best in Illini thought and action.

The Alumni Record (Directory of Alumni)
(Urbana and Chicago Departments)

The Semi-Centennial Alumni Record, edited by Frank W. Scott, '01, and published in 1918, was the last biographical directory of Urbana department graduates published. It is a 1200-page, closely printed book. Now in preparation is a similar volume for the 6000 alumni in Medicine, Dentistry, and Pharmacy. When it is completed, there will be available in book form the detailed biographies of 17,000 graduates.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 31

9:45 A. M.—All-University Service—Auditorium.

The festivities started Friday afternoon with the traditional Senior Hobo Band, and in our opinion it was "some parade." There were Highlanders, convicts, Bolsheviks, beautiful women, clowns, freaks, floats depicting what a man gains by going to college, and at least a regiment of just plain hoboes. The daubing committee worked fast and furious and woe be to the luckless senior who did not pass their inspection. The parade formed at the Beta House and marched through the University district to the South Campus where the prizes were awarded.

By this time the feeling between the Freshmen and Sophomores had reached its climax. Tugs of war, boxing and wrestling contests, along with a pull-over-the-line combats were a few of the things that decided the supremacy of the Freshmen over the Sophomores.

After the excitement had subsided a little, everybody adjourned to the opposite side of the Campus to watch the Seniors beat the Freshmen for the interclass football championship.

Right after dinner everybody turned out for the mass meeting in the Gym Annex to revive the old Illini spirit for the Minnesota game. G. Huff, Zup and Dep gave short talks, while Rod Mason instilled pep in the crowd. Aus Harding's Greatest College Band led in "Loyalty" and "Os-Kee-Wow-Wow." When the meeting broke up every Illini knew what the result of the game would be.

With this feeling of joy and confidence the crowd stormed the Armory to eat, drink, and be merry at the Co-Ed Carnival. The atmosphere of an old time county fair was restored, with "Forty-Niner" and cabaret dances as features, and stunts of sororities and organized units as headliners. Fortune telling booths, raffles, side-shows, popcorn balls, peanuts, candy, cider and confetti added the finishing touches.

During the Carnival the Military Department staged a gigantic sham battle on the drill field back of the Armory. The firing of guns and the blazing of rockets made a spectacular picture and lent a realistic atmosphere to the occasion.

On Saturday morning the entire aggregation turned out for the dedication of the Senior Memorial Chimes, and the classes of 1914-1921 saw their dreams become a reality. The chimes, made possible by the donations of these classes were presented to the University following a speech of acceptance by President Kinley. After a few numbers were given on the Chimes, the ceremonies were ended by the playing of "Loyalty."

Following the Chimes ceremonies President Kinley talked to the old grads at the Alumni reunion and smoker in the Union building. Several of the former Illini cheer leaders displayed their old time pep in directing the yells.

From noon until 2:30 seemed like eternity, and long before the game was scheduled to start, the stands were filled to capacity. With the appearance of the team on the field, a tremendous yell arose that did not cease until the final whistle had blown, and the savage hordes from the north had been vanquished by a score of 17 to 7.

An optomistic committee had planned a fireworks display and victory celebration as soon as possible after the game.

All that we could say about the game was said hundreds of times at the banquets and joy fests that followed in the fraternity houses. Those that were not too tired to go out saw Mask and Bauble give the "New York Idea" or danced at College or Bradley's.

With the dying out of the Victory fires, came a cessation of enthusiasm and hilarity, but every old timer, no matter how tired, was wishing that Homecoming came oftener than once a year.

INTERSCHOLASTIC

The skipping, pirouetting forms, clad in a galaxy of brilliant hues, radiating flowerlike tints of gay spring colors, in the May Fete on the evening of May 20 ushered in the 26th Annual Interscholastic Meet. From the word "Go," Interscholastic was a huge success.

Over four hundred athletes, representing eighty-six high schools, gathered for the Interscholastic Track and Field Meet. Preliminaries in Class "B" were held on Friday afternoon, and the final meet took place on Saturday morning. The day was well fitted for good performances, and the young athletes took advantage of the favorable conditions to hang up some good marks. Martin A. Delaney ran the meet off on schedule time. Oak Park was easily the pick of the first division by hanging up 41½ points, with Deerfield-Shields second with 25. Marion nosed out Hinsdale by ½ point by winning the relay in a garrison finish and a total of 15½ markers. Dave Kimball of Deerfield-Shields was the best all-around performer of the meet and was awarded the Ma-Wan-Da cup for his prowess. Kimball broke the world's record for a curved track in the 220-yard low hurdles by stepping the long barriers in 24:2.

In the tennis tourney Hyde Park won first and second in the singles and first in the doubles. Friday afternoon the touring Bruins from the University of California upset the Illini 9 to 5, while Harry Gill's tracksters outclassed the invading Maroons 103 to 32. The Indians came back on Saturday when Julie Mee knocked a homer with Kissinger on base in the last of the ninth and defeated the Badgers 4 to 3.

It was a genuine circus. From the time that the traditional opening parade rolled ponderously around the brilliantly lighted arena and exhibited its hints of coming events to the 8,500 people assembled; until the big show ended with the Star Spangled Banner and a final fireworks display; it was a genuine circus. The horses, the modern chariots (Fords), the gymnasts, the take-offs on famous and infamous events of history, and above all, the clowns and everything that go to make up a real, old-fashioned circus, were assembled on Illinois Field.

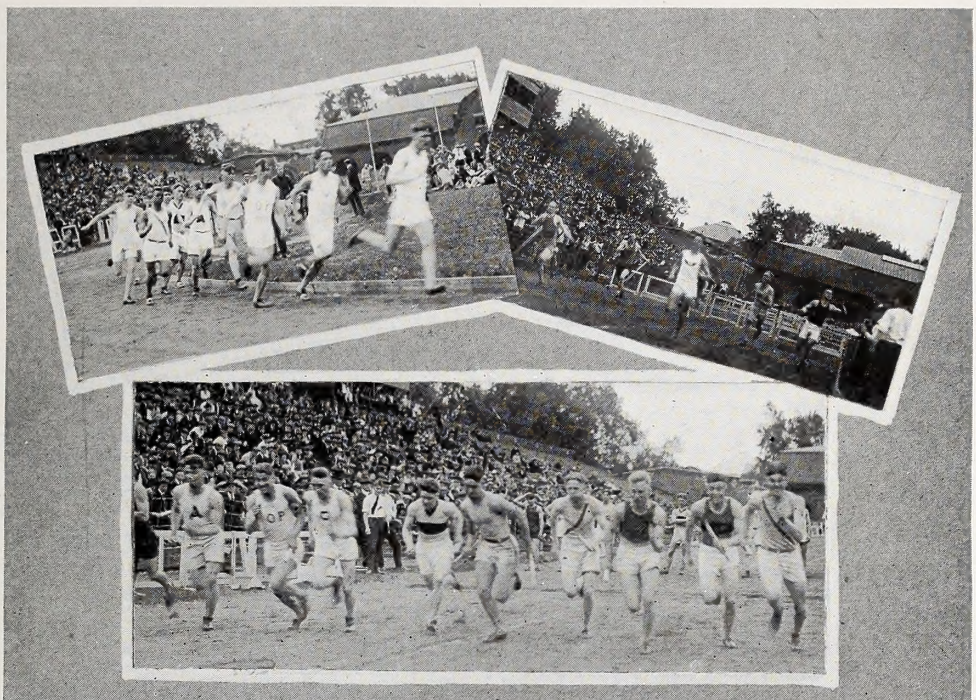

Phi Kappa Tau won first prize in the large organization stunt competition with its act, "All for Love," which depicted the various methods and fashions of making love during the past few centuries. Tau Kappa Epsilon came second with a "Tournament from Ivanhoe." Chi Beta secured first honors in the small organizations' division with "The Great Melting Pot," a tableau that depicted the varied results of a college education on different individuals. Delta Sigma Phi got second in this division with a circus scene from "Nero's Days."

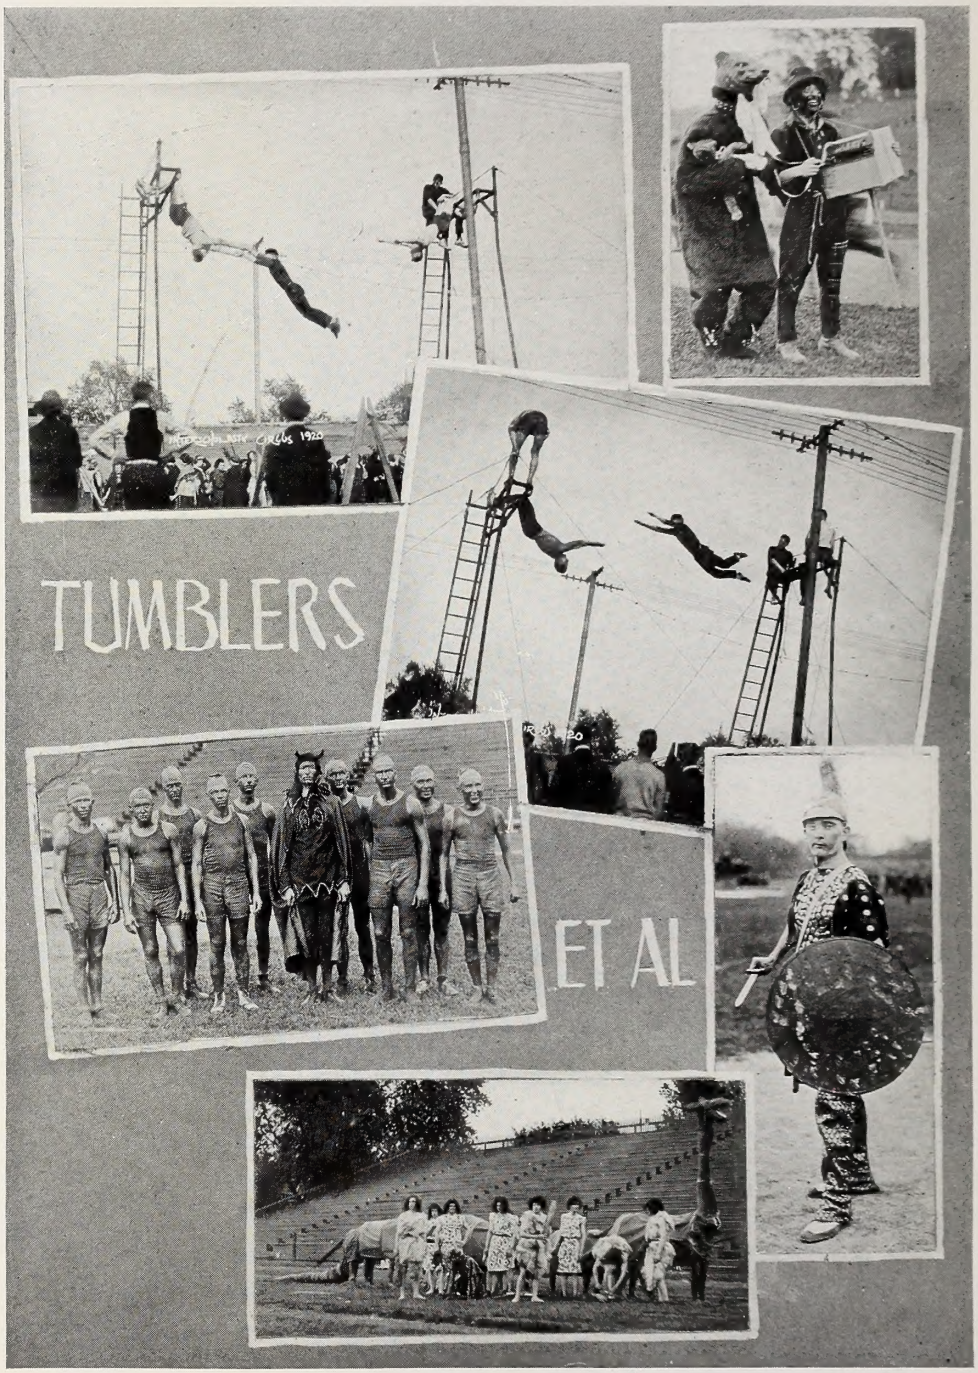

Alpha Chi Omega carried off honors in the Inter-sorority relay with their team captained by Harry Hodde '23. Delta Gamma came second.

Everything went off on scheduled time, with few mistakes, and no serious errors. The night was perfect, the lighting worked well, the players were in earnest—a genuine circus had completed a very successful Interscholastic.

INTERSCHOLASTIC BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

The greatest and at times the most exciting basketball tournament came to a fitting close when the plucky Marion quintet came from behind with a sterling garrison finish and nosed out Rockford 24-23 for the State Title. Three days of the fiercest kind of competition were needed to bring out a winner. After the opening rounds Batavia, Marion, Rockford, and New Trier remained in the semi-finals. Mount Vernon, last year's winner, was eliminated on the first night by Champaign, who in turn were ousted by the speedy New Trier five. The Kenilworth crew was composed of stars, for the brilliant guarding of Parker and the speedy work of Varney and Rand at forward were some of the outstanding features of the tournament. In the semi-finals Rockford eliminated Batavia while Marion barely won over New Trier. The final game was a heart-breaker for the Red and Black of Rockford. Baker and Carlson were Rockford's sentellites and by gilt-edge basket shooting kept ahead of the plucky Maize and Blue team. With five minutes left to play, Rockford led 23-18, and then the Egyptians staged their final desperate rally that crowned them with victory. New Trier defeated Batavia for third honors 33-28. Dougherty of Streator was picked as the best forward on the floor. He was an excellent shot and a good all around man. Belford was the shining light for Marion, while Parker displayed wonderful guarding ability. The Daily Illini made these selections for an All-State Team:

THE SENIOR MEMORIAL CHIMES

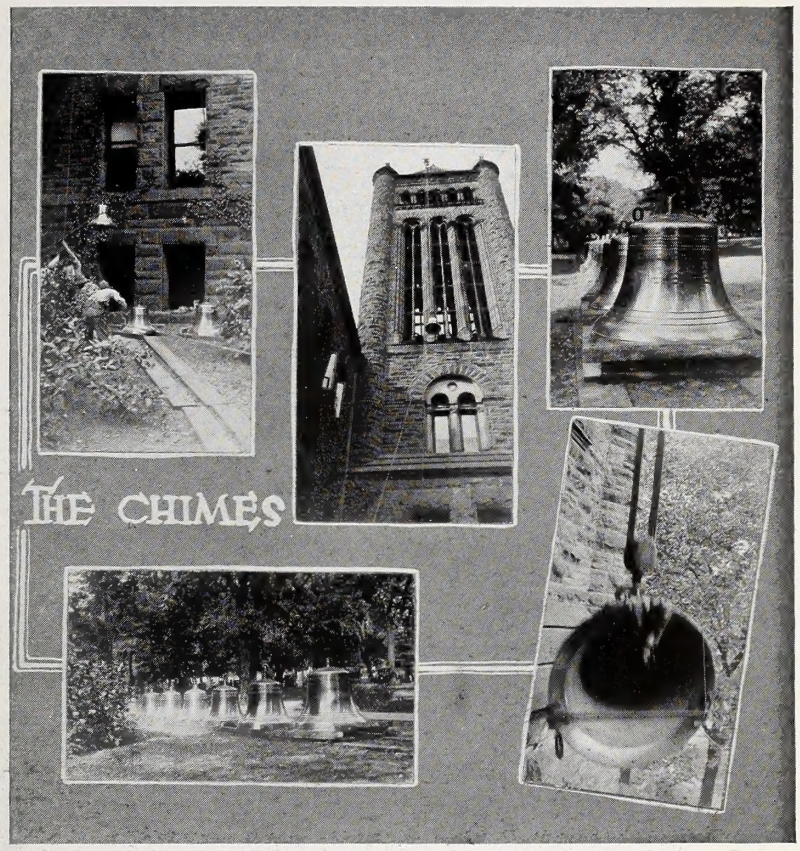

The idea of purchasing a set of chimes for the University originated with the class of 1914. H. P. Daugherty, who was at that time Editor of the Daily Illini was one of the foremost in conceiving the idea which for the past six years has been developing.

The first chairman of the Chimes committee was Edward H. Berry, '14, and the last chairman Reuben G. Carlson '21.

It is quite interesting to retrace the development of this undertaking. It is a difficult thing to collect money for a Senior Memorial which is not going to materialize for several years after you have completed your college career However, this did not seem to stand in the way. The class of 1914 started the fund with something over one thousand dollars and each class has been adding to this fund ever since.

The glory of presenting such a memorial to the University must be shared by all the classes from 1914 to 1921, inclusive. It is a great honor indeed and a gift quite worthy of praise.

The three largest bells of the thirteen which go to make up the set, bear the following interesting and suitable inscriptions:

Large Bell.

The Classes of 1914 to 1921
Inscribe this Bell in Grateful Tribute
To EDMUND JANES JAMES
President, 1904-1920
A Gifted and Inspired Leader
An Educational Statesman.

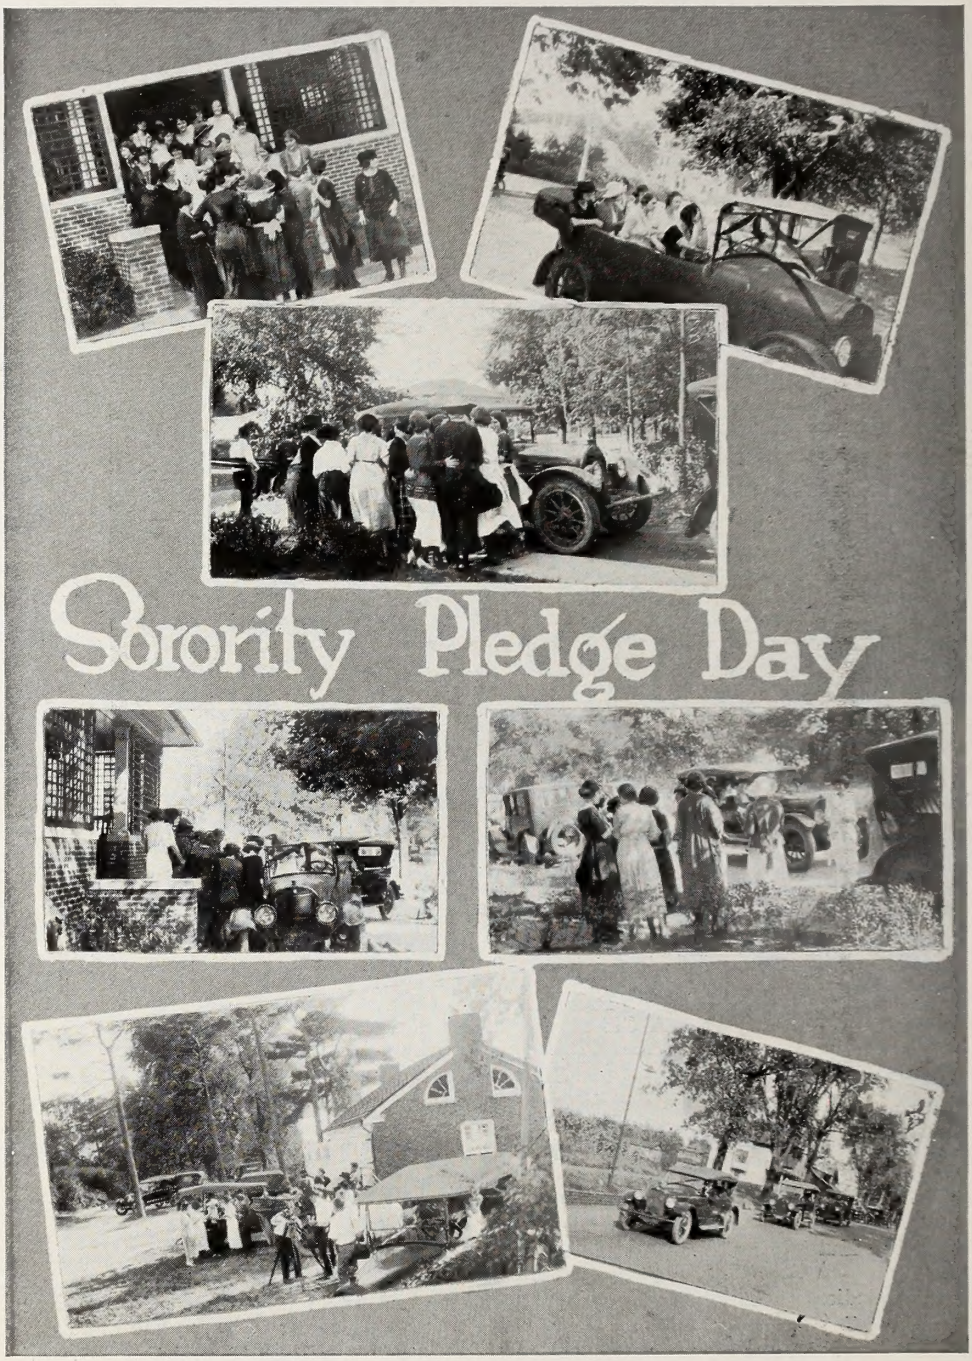

Second Bell.

This Bell commemorates the Patriotism, Resolution and Zeal of the Men Trained Here in the United States School of Military Aeronautics 1917-18.

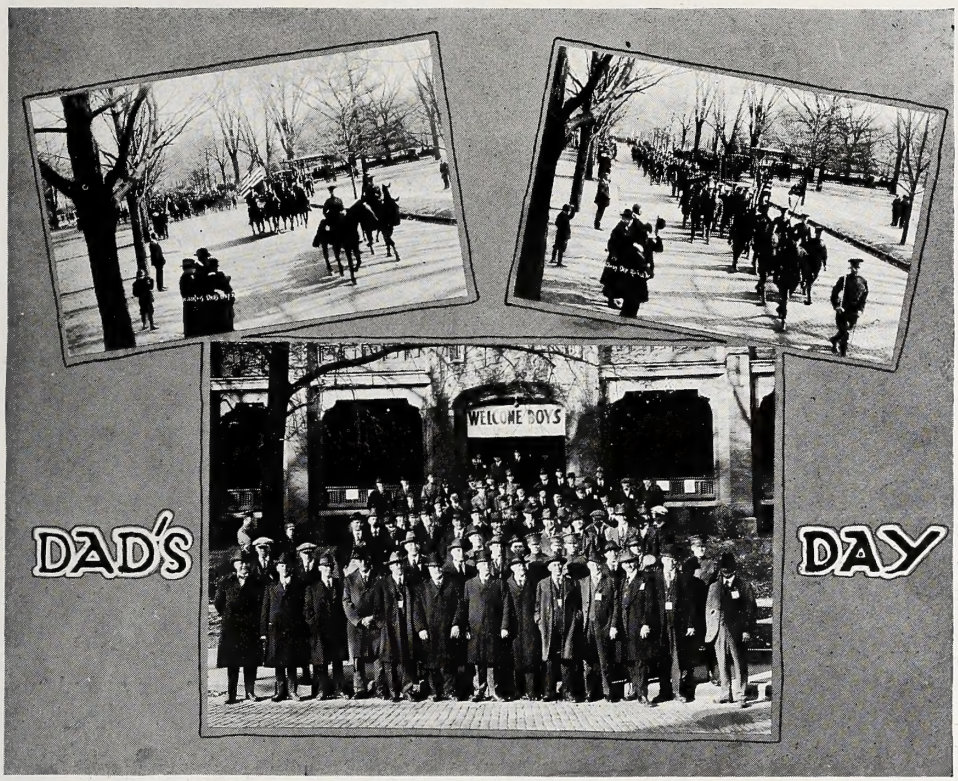

Third Bell.

1918 1919 1920 1921
Call the Multiplying and Majestic Company of Students and Graduates to Join in Gratitude, Loyalty and Devotion to Their Alma Mater.

The dedication ceremony in charge of Victor Cullen took place at the annual Homecoming, October 30, 1920. This occasion will never be forgotten by the hundreds of new and old Illini who were present and as the bells burst forth with Illinois Loyalty every heart throbbed with a new sense of pride in their own great University.

Sorority Pledge Day

DADS' DAY

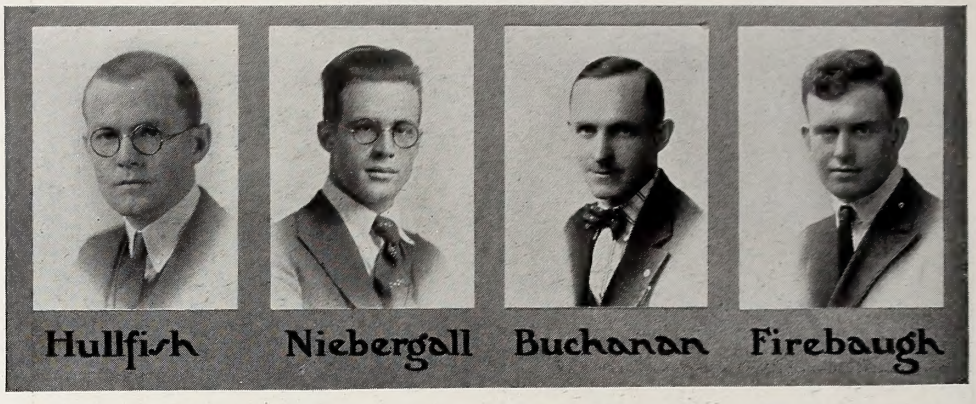

With the First Annual Dads' Day held the week-end of November 20, 1920, Illinois has a new institution to take its place beside Homecoming. Each year the Dads of present and future Illini will be invited to the campus as guests of honor that they may become better acquainted with the University of their sons and daughters.

On Friday, Nov. 19, one thousand fathers laid aside their business and journeyed to Champaign, many of them for the first time.

Saturday morning the campus was thronged with Dads. The University buildings were thrown open for their inspection. Saturday afternoon eager Dads filled the stands at the Ohio-Illinois football game, the first football game for many. Saturday evening, happy and well fed, the Dads crowded into the Gym Annex to meet President Kinley and members of the faculty.

From New Orleans, from the North, from the Rockies, and from the Alleghenies the Dads came. Unanimously they balloted for a repetition of the event next Fall, "so that we can see another football game."

MEMORIAL TREE PLANTING

MEMORIAL TREE PLANTING COMMITTEE.

Just when the University community was settling down to work last year and seemingly forgetting that a war had ever been fought, the Illini heart opened wide—so wide that each member of the campus, student, faculty and town-folk alike, contributed to the fund started by the Illinois Union toward commemorating the lives of those Gold Star Illini who had gone the good road "West."

The result of this heart-opening was a huge and memorable ceremony on April 23 which brought the Illini community together for one afternoon when the rush of work was forgotten and each heart beat for, and each thought-flight hesitated over, those 173 Illini in whose memory 173 trees were planted—trees that have already started to spread their roots in the good soil of Illinois to grow as living memorials to the Gold Star Illinois heroes.

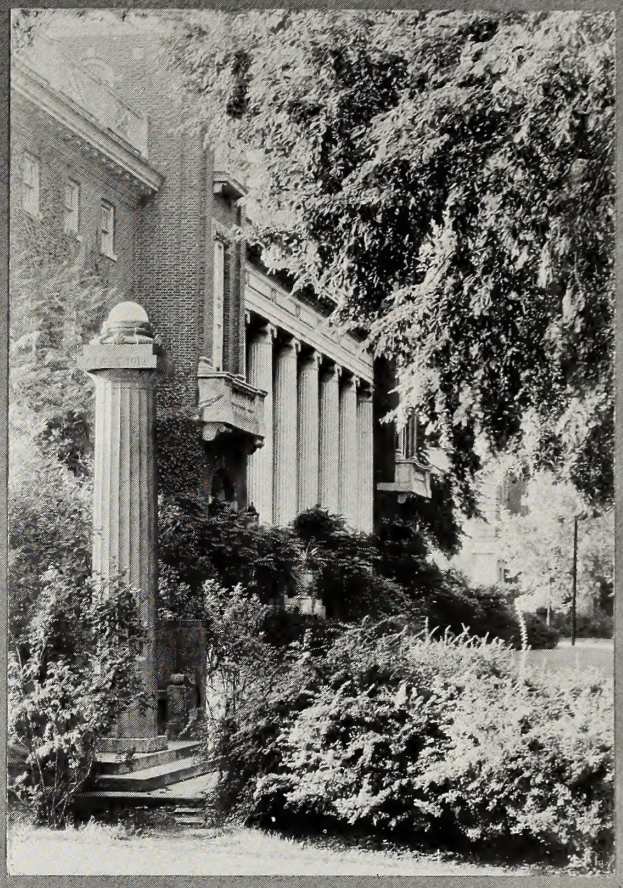

To the Illinois Union goes the credit for bringing about the purchasing and planting of these trees. The original thought was to make this a student memorial to former students; so wide, however, was the appeal made by the thought of planting trees in commemoration of these lives that faculty and towns-folk joined with the students in raising the funds—the response showed clearly that the callous contact of war and the after-effect of rush and re-adjustment had not dulled the feelings, nor deadened the emotions, of the campus community.

With but three days publicity the committee appointed by the Illinois Union launched the drive for funds, and more than $1,550 was contributed to the Salvation Army kettles placed at various points on the campus during a ten hour period. Then, with the aid of the Supervising Architect, the work of arranging for the placing of the trees was started They were distributed at odd points about the Armory, and then, an avenue of trees around the drill field was planned. This avenue to be fifty feet wide with forty feet separating the trees in the rows. Name-plates for each tree were also ordered.

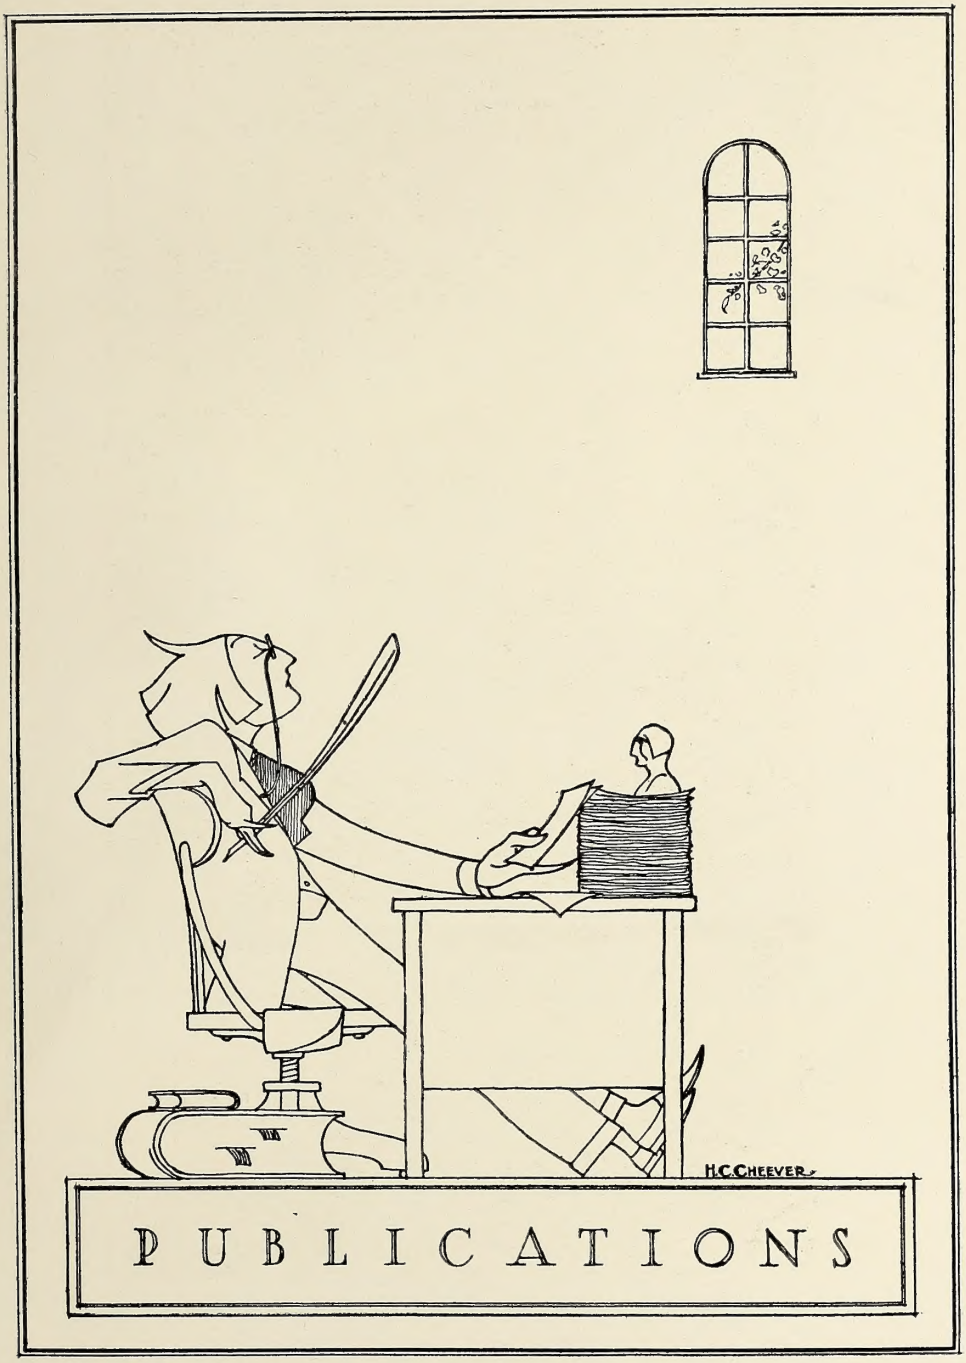

On the afternoon of April 23 the drill field of the University was packed with people—students, faculty members, Twin City folk, and relatives of the Gold Star Illini who had come for miles to be present at the ceremony. Dean Eugene Davenport, of the College of Agriculture, gave the memorial address. Under the guidance of Major G. F. N. Dailey, the military department gave the proper atmosphere to an occasion that was dedicated to the Illini heroes of the war. The actual planting of the trees was done entirely by students, formed into teams of ten to a tree. In this work men and women shared alike.

It was an afternoon not soon to be forgotten by participating Illini, and as the trees begin to spread their roots further and develop their majestic branches, Illini of coming generations will witness in each tree a tribute from a beating Illini heart to another Illini heart that ceased to beat only when the last notes of "Taps" had settled over the battle field of the world.

SOCIETY

SENIOR BALL COMMITTEE

Seniors are planning a stately celebration for their last social function as undergraduates at Illinois—the Senior Ball. On June 13, the Monday night before Comencement, members of the class will give the party as a fitting close to their college days. From the formation of the grand march at 9:00 o'clock, an atmosphere of "eat, dance, and be merry, for tomorrow we say good-bye" will do much to change the Annex into an enchanting ballroom. The committee expects to make the Senior Ball a pompous and splendid affair which the members of the class will recall with glad remembrance in the years to come.

THE JUNIOR PROM

A dimly lighted Japanese garden, gay in its festive dress of smilax and pom-pom, furnished the setting for the annual Junior Prom, December 10, 1920, in the Gym Annex With its sharp outlines kindly concealed by rustling green leaves and with a beautiful natural tree in the center, the old basketball court seemed to have been magically changed to a mystical Oriental garden on the Nipponese Isle.

Vari-colored lights played on the 300 couples as they danced through the evening to the sweet strains and sharp syncopation of a fourteen-piece orchestra. Gorgeous colored gowns contrasting against gleaming white and somber black, formed a beautiful picture in so unique a setting. From the first note of the formal grand march to the final drumbeat of the last dance, pleasure predominated.

At two o'clock the University's biggest formal social event was finished, and those who participated said the affair was successful from every viewpoint. So it goes down in history as one of Illinois' greatest dances.

THE MILITARY BALL

Blue, khaki, black and the softer hues blended into a harmonious color scheme, as representatives from the navy, army and civilian life glided over the floor in the Military Ball in the Gymnasium Annex, February 25. Prancing jesters, in domino suits, skillfully guided the grand march through its serpentine intricacies, until the couples found themselves dancing joyously in a Parisian garden.

Shining puttee and glistening pump flashed in and about as the fourteen-piece orchestra crashed out its captivating harmonies. No rank distinctions were observed as lieutenant and "buck," ensign and "gob," and the less resplendent "civvy" danced with each other's girls.

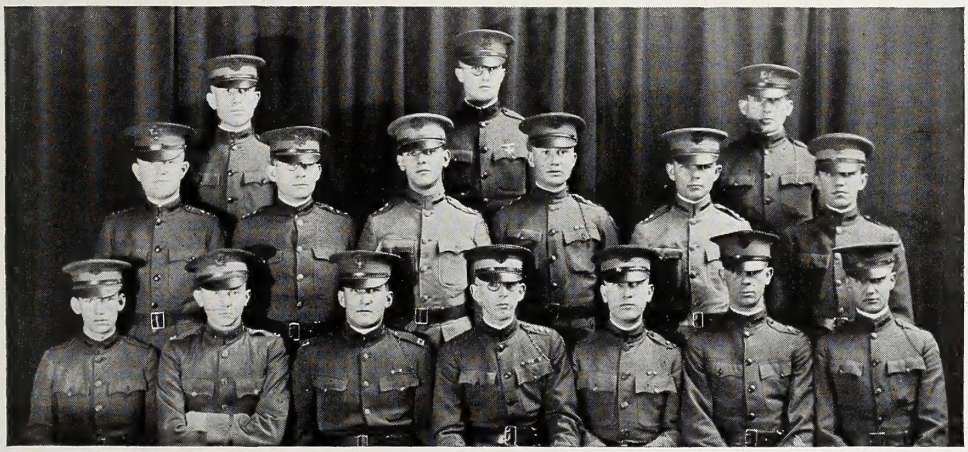

Novelty was given to the affair by the comical jesters who sprang from booth to booth shouting clever witticisms or singing snatches of song. In addition a program of violin and piano solos entertained the crowd between dances.

Roofed in with a network of daintily contrived and richly colored streamers the floor was dimly lit by lights of different hue. Lattice work, adorned with summer foliage hemmed in the booths, carrying out further the garden effect. As the two o'clock hour neared, taps were blown, the command "dismissed" given and the Military Ball passed into history.

SOPHOMORE COTILLION

Lavish splendor seldom seen at informal dances was the keynote of the Sophomore Cotillion, held January 7, in the stolid brick walls of the Gymnasium Annex. The three hundred couples, crowding the large floor to its capacity, found themselves in an American garden in the springtime. Beech trees, gala in their verdant dress, threw an enveloping shade over the assemblage. From the center of the floor, waiting for the dancers to whirl about it, was a large May-pole with gaily colored streamers leading to the balcony.

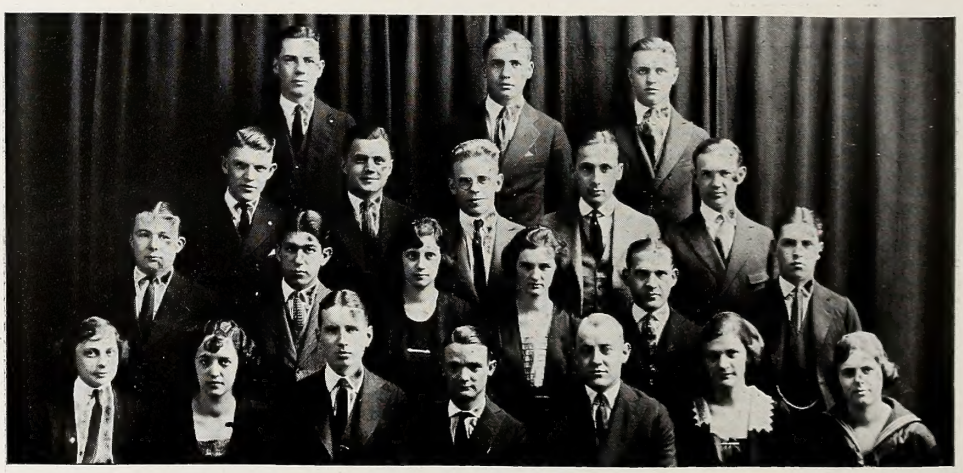

Oil paintings of many subjects, lining the walls of the building, lent an air of dignity to the occasion. The mid-winter chill outside was cast off, and the dancers felt in their blood the surge of spring and May-time. Without the stiffness of formal attire, the couples frolicked happily in time to the good music of the effervescent orchestra.

When the program had been completed, and the crowd began to drift away, the Sophomores believed their contribution to the University social calendar had been a happy one.

Fresh from high school and with the verdant hue still clinging to them, the members of the class of 1924 wandered shyly into the Gymnasium Annex January 15 to mingle with their fellow classmates and to enjoy their first social event, the Freshman Frolic. Observing that they were to be treated kindly, and that there was safety in numbers, they lost some of the shyness as the evening wore on, and proceeded to enjoy themselves.

While the "no date" rule had been placed into effect, the frosh became acquainted with one another through the medium of tags, and soon had paired off into dancing couples. The usual noise, the usual crowding and jostling, the usual tag dances, all went to make up a successful Frolic. The orchestra threw discretion to the winds and turned out its "jazziest" products.

While no decoration graced the walls of the Annex, they weren't needed as nobody noticed the lack of them, anyway. Aside from dancing, entertainment was administered by an act from the Orph which received the customary approval from the yearlings. When the time for young folks to be in bed came around, the Frosh lost some of their greenness, paired off into twos and marched happily homeward.

ILLINOIS UNION DANCES

COMMITTEE
M. B. Skinner, Chairman
J. W. Macdonald G. R. White

The popularity of the dances given Friday and Saturday nights each week-end by the Illinois Union has been shown by the large attendance of students. With excellent orchestras at each place, both College and Bradley halls offer the finest kind of dancing to lovers of this amusement, which includes nearly the entire student body.

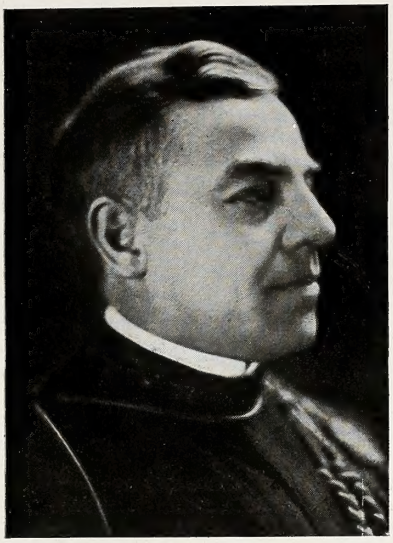

Perhaps Bradley has been a little more popular this year than College, but this is probably due to the beautiful decorations at the former place or else the presence of the most talented musicians on the campus. However, the music at both places has been the kind the students demand, as is evidenced by the rush for tickets every week.

The dance committee of the Union has had charge of the dances, and has done everything to please the patrons. This willingness to give the students the cleanest and best kind of dancing is only one of the many services that the organization is performing on the campus.

MUSIC

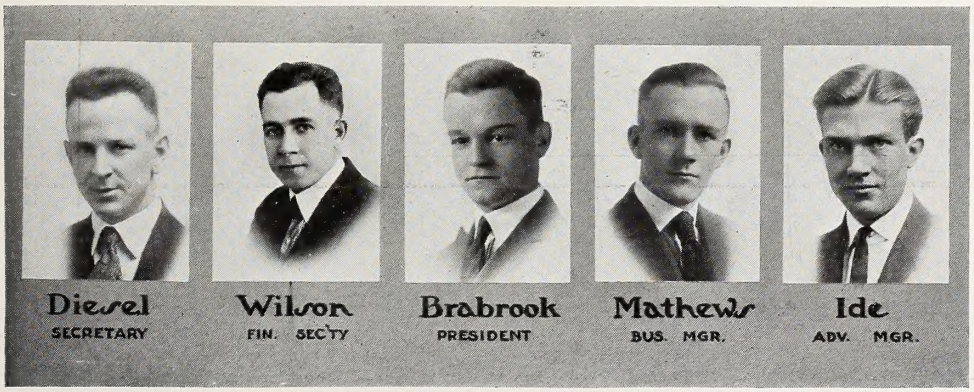

THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS MILITARY BANDS

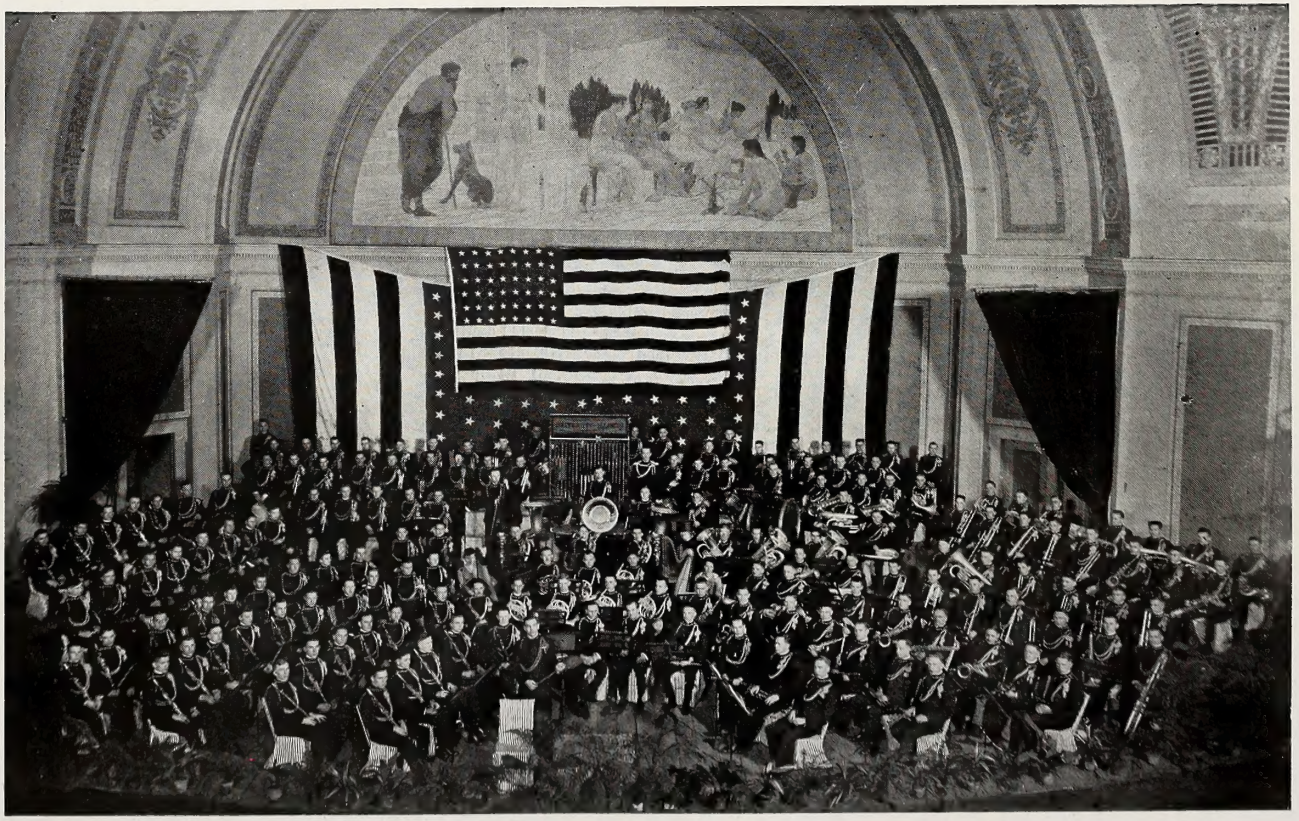

ALBERT AUSTIN HARDING, Director

The man at the University of Illinois has in the Concert and Regimental Bands an exceptional opportunity to develop his ability to play the band instrument of his choice, to cultivate a keener understanding of good music, and to form closer associations with others who possess kindred tastes. Director A. A. Harding, who enjoys a nation-wide reputation for his ability to mold from amateur musicians, bands of professional calibre, is a source of inspiration and encouragement for all who are privileged to be included in the membership of one of the University bands. Membership in the bands is determined by competition held at the beginning of each semester.

The more proficient musicians are enrolled in the Concert Band which is the culmination of band instrumentation. It is this organization which develops within the man an appreciation of the very highest class of music and which is in such demand by the students at the athletic contests and in the Spring for twilight concerts on the campus. It makes an annual tour of various cities, this year including Oak Park, Chicago, and St. Louis, followed by the Anniversary Concert played in the Auditorium. It is this band, with its perfection of technique, that has won for the University of Illinois Military Bands the fame of being pre-eminent over all other college bands.

WOMAN'S LEAGUE

The Woman's League of the University of Illinois is composed of all women students in the university. The league regulates the social life of the women, furnishes and maintains co-operative houses, organizes the women not living in organized houses for the purpose of self-government, and cooperates with the Dean of Women, the Faculty, and the men, in carrying out campus policies and traditions.

WOMAN'S WELFARE COMMITTEE

BLANCHE SHIRLEY
Chairman

A capable woman from every unit and organization on the campus composes the Woman's Welfare committee of Woman's League. The purpose of the committee is to promote and maintain a high standard of living for all University women. The goal of the committee is to help establish a dormitory system for all women.

One of the important functions of the committee is to cooperate with the Dean of Women in the furnishing and upkeep of all Woman's League houses. A Woman's League house is a house where organized women live, and where the women do their own housekeeping and serve their own meals. The committee furnishes a house each year with the proceeds of an annual operetta given under the auspices of the committee. One thousand dollars was cleared with Victor Herbert's operetta this year. Justine Pritchard '22, was general chairman of the committee and Donald M. Erb was director.

The Y. W. C. A. Stunt Show of 1920 was very successful. Alpha Xi Delta with its stunt "Read It and Weep," a take-off on the Daily Illini was the most clever skit, and Kappa Alpha Theta's aesthetic dancing "The Fete of Diana" took the prize for the most artistic stunt. Helen Cory carried away individual honors with her "Oh Ladies, Ladies" travesty.

The "Tyranny of Tears" by C. Haddon Chambers is a delightful comedy of the better sort. Mask and Bauble did well in choosing this play for their spring attempt as was shown by the large audience and favorable comment heard.

The play tells the story of how the tears of a wife, which have been the chief weapon she used against her husband, proved to be her own undoing. There was no particular star in the performance for all read their lines well.

The stage was without a doubt the best that has ever been seen at a Mask and Bauble play.

"The New York Idea" by Langdon Mitchell is rather too extravagant to rank as a comedy; it is much too serious in its purport, too searching in its character delineation and too subtle in its wit to be treated as a mere farce.

With this play Mask and Bauble re-established itself among those who liked to see Mask and Bauble stand for something more than it did during the war.

CO-ED CARNIVAL

The dense cloud of Armory dust which parched the throats and blurred the eyes of the three thousand pleasure seekers could not contend with the general spirit of good times and Homecoming which prevailed at the 1920 Co-Ed Carnival.

One of the major attractions was the little vaudeville show given by five representative groups of our girls. The program was oft repeated and the many audiences were loud in their appreciation of the show. The five sororities which competed for the prizes offered for the best and most original stunts were Delta Delta Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Pi Beta Phi, Chi Omega, and Sigma Kappa. Delta Delta Delta won first prize, and Alpha Omicron Pi and Pi Beta Phi tied for second place. The girls all worked hard and it is hoped that the same spirit will be shown next year.

POST-EXAM JUBILEE

H. C. ECKART, Manager

The auditorium was filled to its capacity on the 8th and 9th of February to witness a rather lengthy but interesting performance of the 19th annual Post-Exam Jubilee.

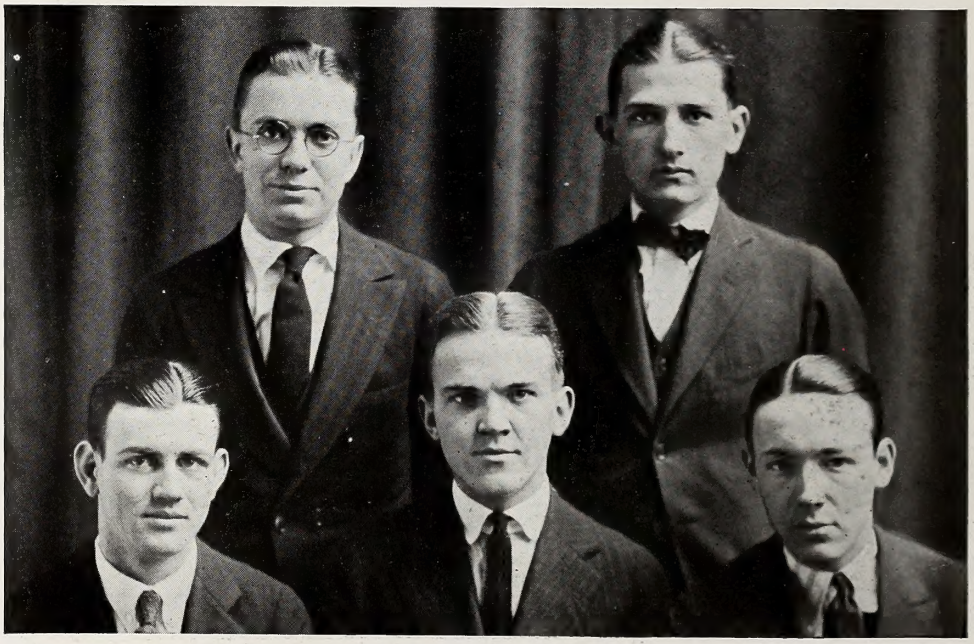

First prize for organizations was won by Chi Phi who presented "She", a comedy of their own production. It was a hokus-pokus of froth depending on speed to hold it up and to put it across. The dancing chorus was excellent.

Phi Kappa Tau came second with "The Battle of the Books." It depicted the trials and tribulations of the student in his fight with the spirits of work and play.

Delta Sigma Phi presented a spectacular act in "Color", a fantasy. The scenery was beautiful and the acting was well done.

The Staff of the Daily Illini presented "Barmen", a tearful tragedy and burlesque on "Carmen." The characters were well chosen, for the audience was kept in an uproar during the whole performance.

ASSISTANTS

STEVENS NEEDLER CARLSON STEINWEDELL STORMONT

Biano and Chandler won the individual cup with a musical act. The violinists were humorous as well as clever.

Dvorak took second prize with a musical act of many instruments. His piano playing was especially good.

Cannon, Thompson and Collins gave a double-piano and dancing act. It was marked by Cannon's scarecrow dance.

Traut received a great applause when he demonstrated his musical talent. His Xylophone solo was especially noteworthy.

Novak pleased the audience with a demonstration of the latest Frisco dance.

Such a variety as this helped to make the Jubilee successful.

"SWEETHEARTS"

This operetta of Victor Herbert was the first production to be directed and supervised entirely by students of the university. The attempt was very successful for it proved to be the most popular play of the season.

SUMMARY OF THE FOOTBALL SEASON

ZUPPKE, Coach

If the 1919 team was the gamest that ever wore the Orange and Blue, then the 1920 eleven suffered the greatest from bad breaks, both in regard to injuries and to happenings on the gridiron during the games. Every contest was a fight and the last few battles of the season were not settled until the dying seconds of play. Ohio State, in the championship game, secured revenge for the last eight seconds of the 1919 tilt, by scoring the only touchdown of the fray in the last two seconds, the result of a long forward pass.

Coach Zuppke was set for a comeback and a Conference championship in the final game with Ohio but the chances were practically wrecked when Captain Depler was injured during practice and "Chuck" Carney was forced out with a dislocated knee, compelling the substitution of two inexperienced men, both of whom, however, performed creditably. Even so Illinois outfought the Scarlet and Gray and on one occasion shoved the ball over for a touchdown which was not allowed by the referee. The victory forward pass would have ordinarily been blocked had Captain-elect Walquist not tripped and fallen in reaching to intercept the ball. It was one of the greatest games ever witnessed on Illinois field. Interest was so intense that thousands of applications for seats were returned.

KOHLER, Manager

DEPLER, Captain
"Dep" was the bulwark of the whole line.

Ralph Fletcher's efficient toe chalks up three points against Iowa in the first conference game of the season.

L. W. WALQUIST

Captain-elect of next year "Laurie" was greatly responsible for the 24 points that Illinois scored on his passes.

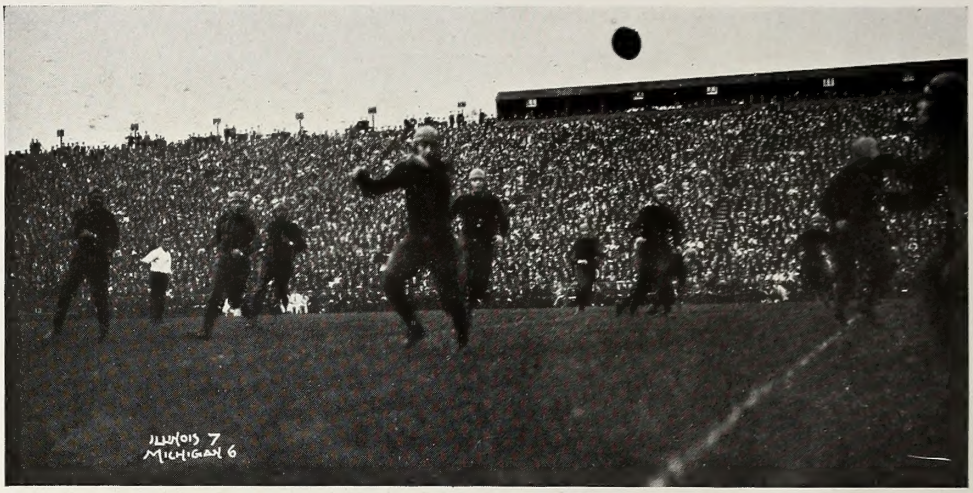

C. R. CARNEY
All-American End

Universally considered the best left end in the country, "Chuck's" part of the "Walquist to Carney" combination was invaluable to the Orange and Blue.

R. E. FLETCHER

Ralph's drive both in his toe and in his legs were responsible for 44 points this year.

One of the hardest games of the season was at Ann Arbor. It took all the team had to win. This picture shows "Al" Mohr in his favorite position ready to down the receiver of a kick.

R. H. FLETCHER

"Zup" called Bob, "Napoleon."

CLARENCE EMS

Clarence is best known by the statement "keep them arms down by them sides, they ain't gon'na do yuh no good up there."

A. W. T. MOHR

"Al's" long suit was getting through the line and down on kicks in a hurry.

Here we see Captain-elect Walquist doing all he could to make the score more than 3 to 0 in the Chicago game.

W. F. CRANGLE

The fact that he was always good for three yards got "Jack" the call to many a mythical eleven.

M. M. OLANDER

In "Milt" we see the man who was known all over the conference as the "masked marvel."

F. C. LARIMER

"Cris" was injured early in the year but "Zup" always considered him a valuable man in case of necessity.

After looking at this picture it is not hard to see why "Chuck" received the greatest of all football honors this year. This was a rather usual occurrence in the the Minnesota game.

S. R. SMITH

"Smithie" under the guidance of "Zup" turned out to be a steady, consistent player.

E. N. HELLSTROM

The "Swede" as a new man showed an uncanny ability to get through an open field and was no mean kicker.

D. C. PEDEN

"Don" was best on straight line plunges and was on most occasions good for about 8 yards.

In the Wisconsin game Illinois would have been scoreless had not Ralph Fletcher's foot been in good working order as is shown in this picture. This was one thing the Wisconsin team could not stop.

R. W. LINDEN

Linden comes from "Zup's" old town and brought with him an ability to hold the left wing down whenever necessary.

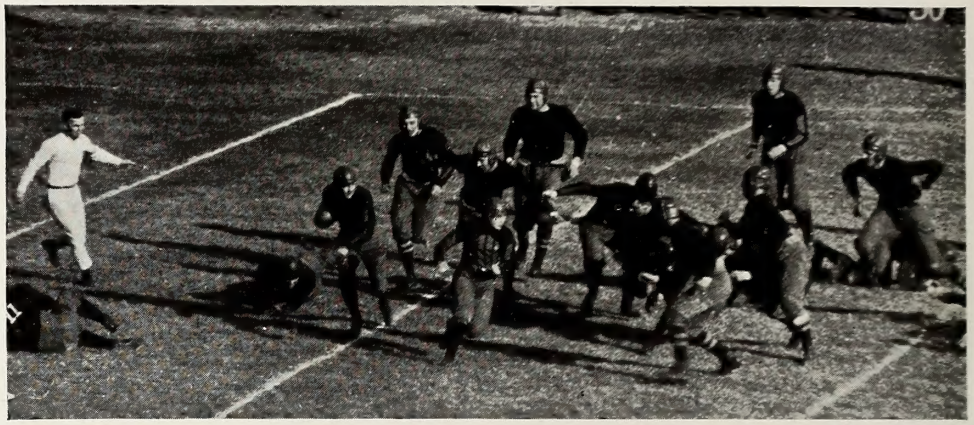

H. L. HUGHES

"Hank" had only one game in which to show his wares, but in the game he played a brand of football that blended well in "Zup's" machine.

J. P. SABO

"Johnny" was always ready to fill the half position in case of any injury.

At no time during the Ohio game was either goal safe. This picture shows Ralph Fletcher in what proved a vain attempt to get around the left end. The team work that was displayed all during the season is easily seen here in his interference.

H. O. Rietsch

"Jack" Watson said of "Hank," "He came from a second class high school to a first class college center in the Ohio game." If you don't believe this, ask Nemeck.

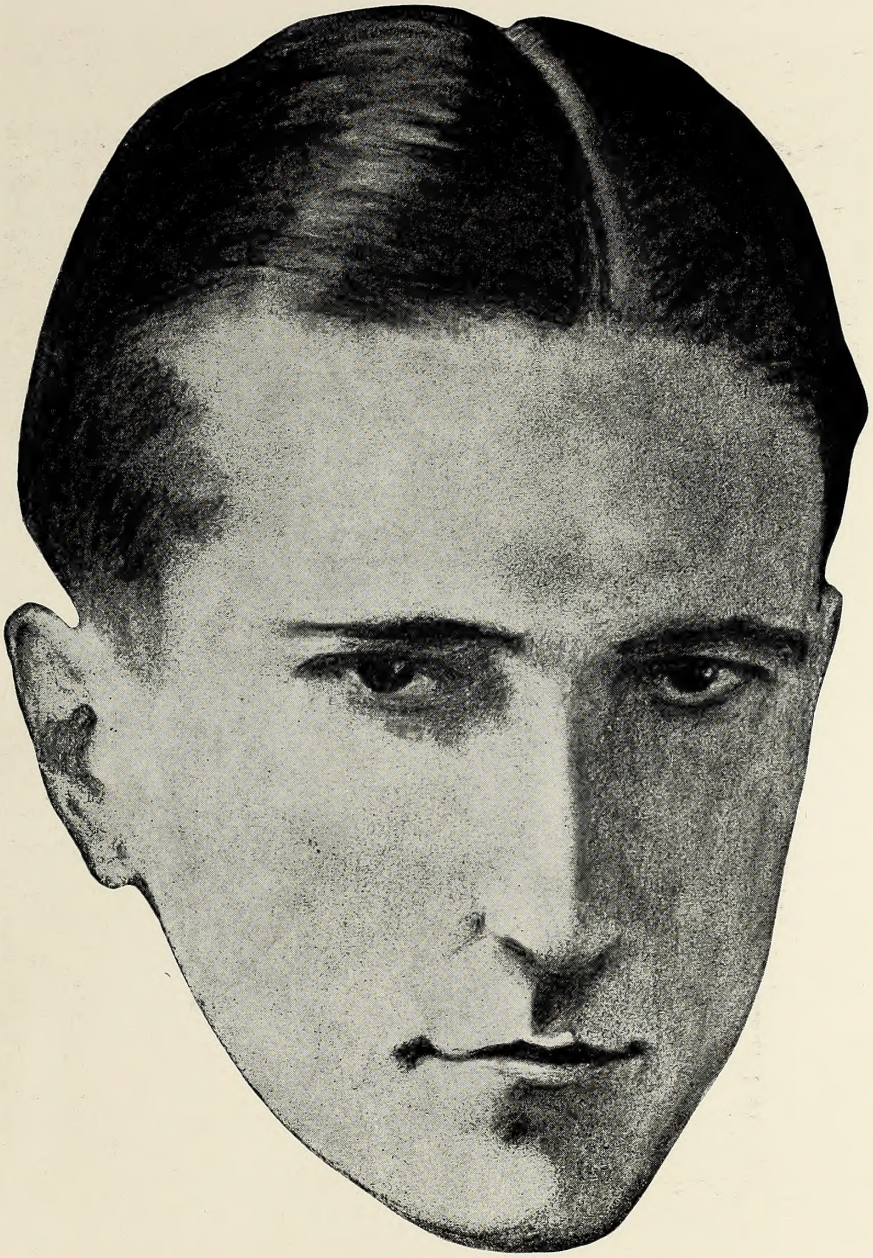

V. W. Middleton

"Mit" came all the way from Texas to play football for the Orange and Blue.

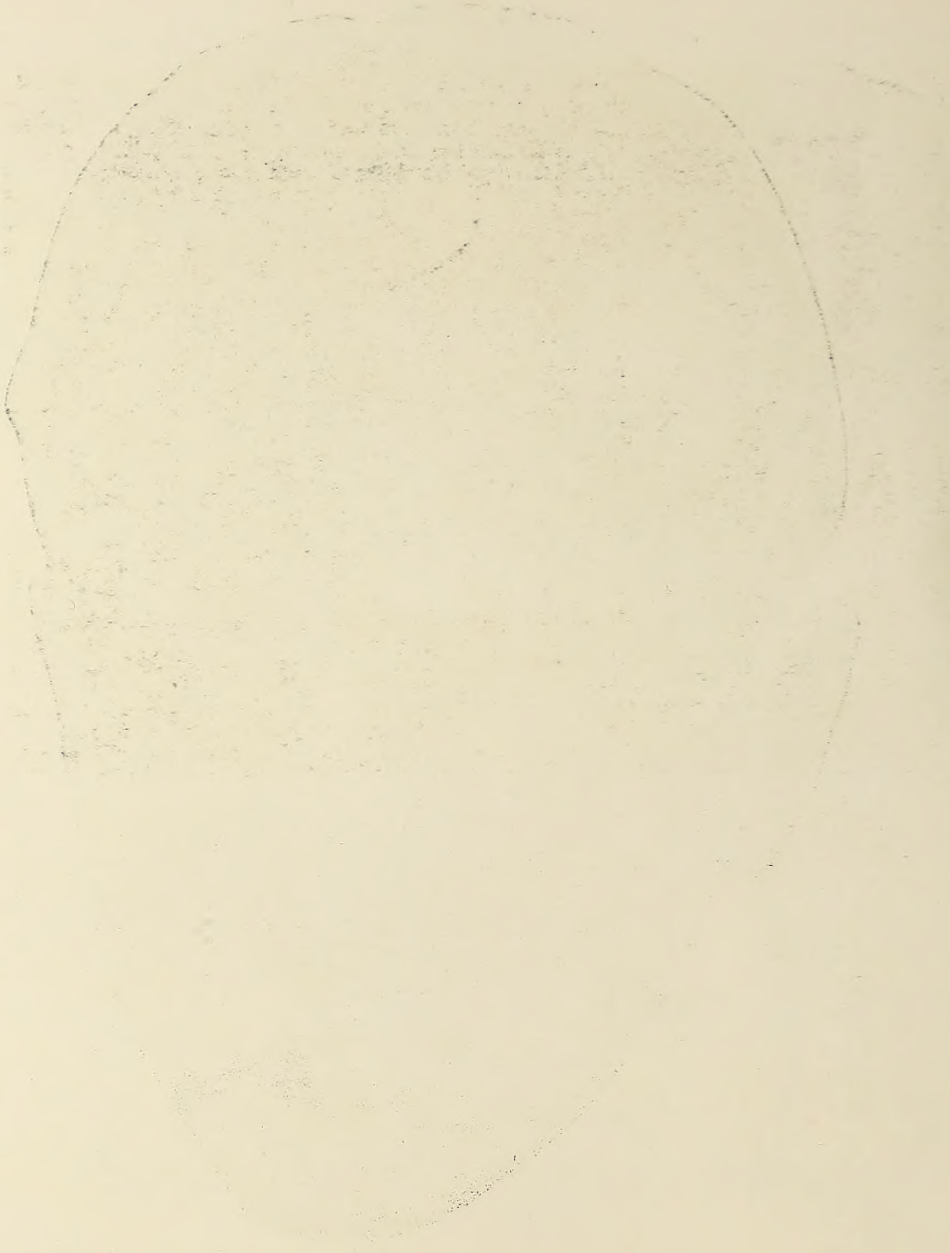

R. F. Doepel

When "Chuck" had done his best for Illinois "Bob" was there to give all that was in him.

"JOHNNY"

TRACK SEASON 1920

When Captain "Bob" Emery broke the tape in the last lap of the mile relay at Ann Arbor on the fifth of June, 1920, he closed one, if not the most, successful track seasons that an Illinois team has ever had. Coach Gill was wonderfully blessed with men, both old and new, that could step around a track in record-breaking time. The men who made the season such a success in the way of performance were Captain Emery, Spink, Bennett, and Wilson. Never before have such a galaxy of stars performed for the Orange and Blue.

GILL
Coach

The taking of the Indoor Conference Championship from the much talked-of Michigan team, led by the greatest track athlete of the West, Carl Johnson, was a feat that made the Conference teams take more notice of what Harry Gill was silently doing. The meet with California was a surprise to both teams, but the Bruin tracksters knew that they had been up against some mighty stiff competition when they came out on top. For the first time in history Illinois placed in all the races entered in the Drake Relays. The two-mile team, as in 1914, showed itself to be the best in America. To be beaten by the Oxford-Cambridge team is nothing to be ashamed of. In the first meet between the men of Gill and those of "Steve" Farrell, the Illinois men came out with a heavy lead. The Michigan backers had the consolation that if Johnson had been in, the story might have been different, though the lead of forty-two points is rather heavy.

WILLIAMSON
Manager

Even if there were some stars on the team, the credit for the good work done goes to the whole squad, for stars never affect an entire season play. Illinois can always be sure of a well-balanced team as long as Coach Gill stays at the head of track athletics, and the efforts of this one man are responsible for the long series of Illinois track victories more than any other factor.

R. S. EMERY

As captain, "Bob" was the best point winner on the team as well as every ones friend.

The summary of the track season would not be complete if mention was not made that Emery, Bennett, and Wilson were on the Olympic team. Bennett placed third in the Hammer Throw against the best men in the world. Emery and Wilson, although not placing at Antwerp showed up the other men of their events in the meets at Paris, London, Stockholm, and Christiana.

Illinois lost the only dual meet of the season against Wisconsin at Madison. The Orange and Blue athletes were beginning to feel the effects of the gruelling campaign and unexpected performances on the part of the Badger tracksters gave Wisconsin a narrow victory.

Illinois two mile relay team proved itself the best in the country and was defeated only by the famous Oxford-Cambridge combination. This picture shows the start of this race with Illinois off in the lead at the pole.

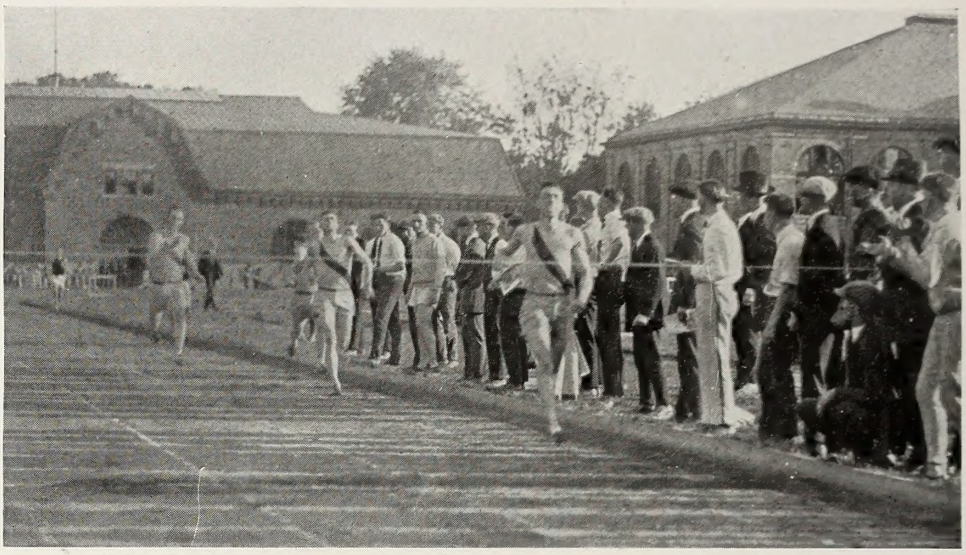

J. S. PRESCOTT

"Johnny" as Captain-elect has a big job to fill the shoes of "Bob," but if he continues to show as well in the future, he will go a long way to do it.

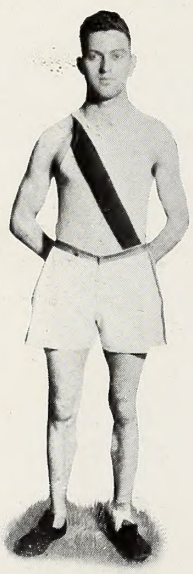

"Phil" staged one of the greatest comebacks in the history of track at Illinois and proved Coach Gill's statement that he was the greatest half miler we ever had.

P. M. SPINK

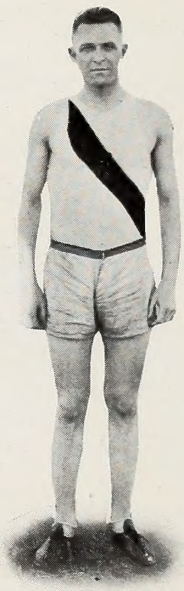

The one thing that made other conference teams look poor was the way Illinois' trio of half milers, Spink, Brown and Schuh used to finish in this fashion.

P. H. Donohoe

This was "Phil's" first year on the team and as a running mate for Bob in the quarter he played an important part.

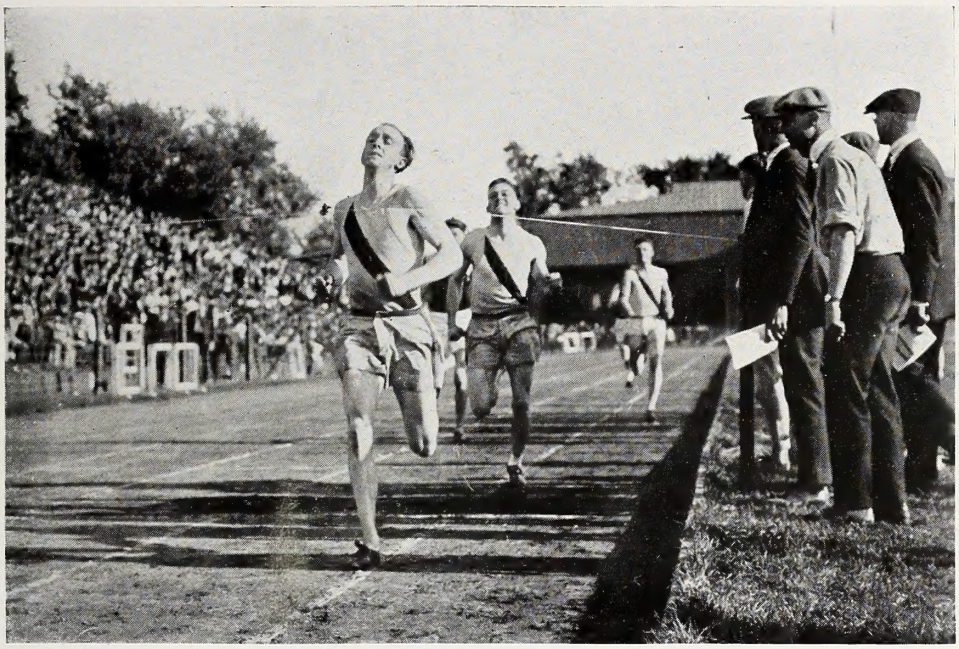

C. R. Schuh

"Charlie" had the most peculiar stride of any runner in the conference, but it had a way of getting him over 880 yards in remarkable time.

E. D. Brown

To "Dave" goes the honor of breaking the indoor conference record in the half and establishing one that will last for some time.

We can see from this picture that the half-milers were not the only men on the team that could win events. "Bob" was only beaten in the quarter once during the year.

K. L. WILSON
"Tug" and his javelin were a combination that brought home a large number of points during his career on the track team.

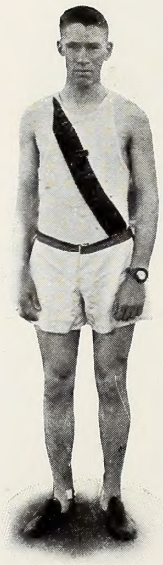

J. N. WEISS
Weiss was the third of the trio of men that could be counted on for points at all times.

B. BENNETT
Bennett was another famous come-backer and after helping win the conference for Illinois he journeyed to Antwerp.

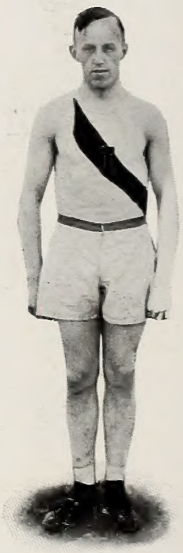

Not to brag, but this shows Otis of Chicago winning one of the two firsts that Chicago won in the dual meet last spring. Yates is doing his best but he had the consolation of winning his event at the conference two weeks later.

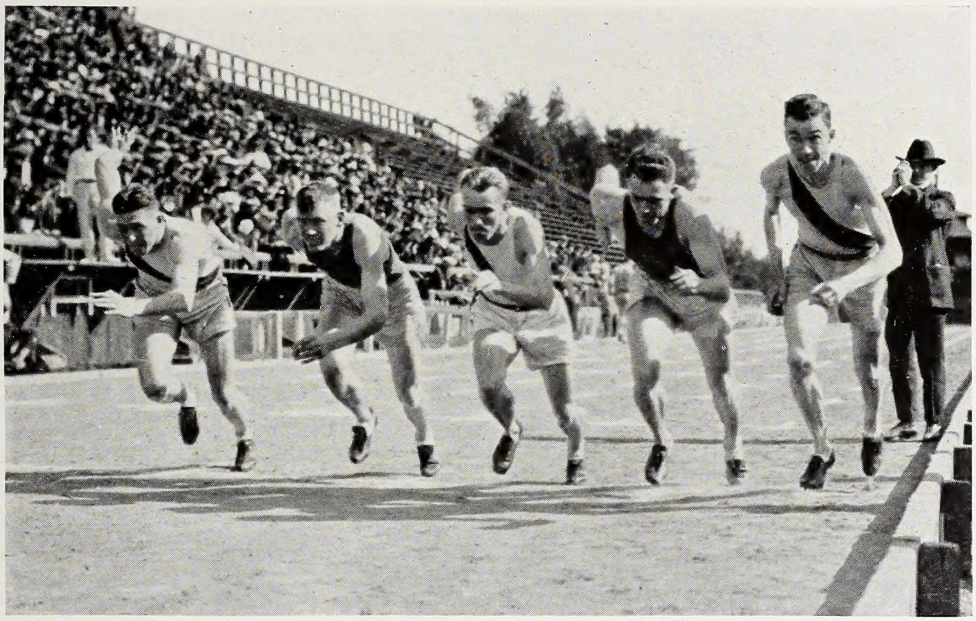

J. C. ALLMAN

"Johnny's" favorite distance was five miles in the fall and two in the spring, and he made good time in both.

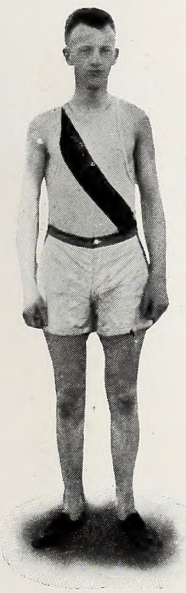

When a man wins the mile in the Indoor and Outdoor conferences in one year, there is not much more to say as to his ability. Yates is such a man.

H. N. YATES

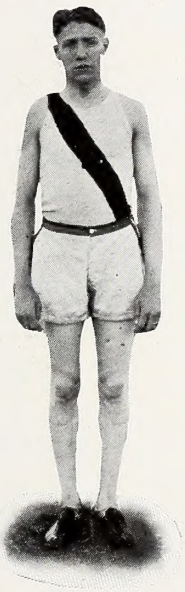

Again the trio of half-milers, but this time at the start of their grind, and in Berkley, and sorry to say, a view of the finish would not be so good from the Illinois viewpoint.

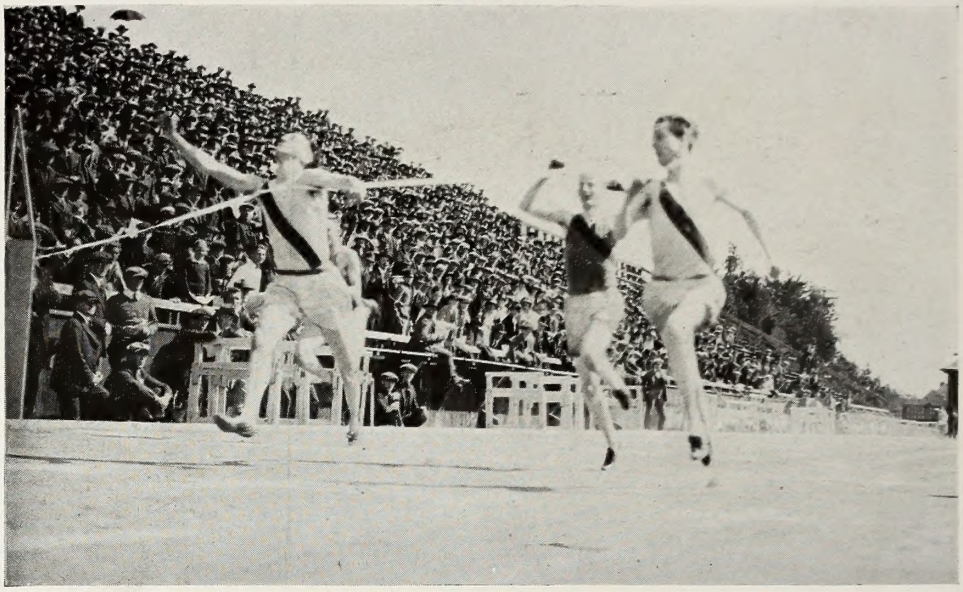

"Dusie" was a new man on the team but in the mile and two mile showed that he was of varsity material.

"Rus" had a habit of running two miles in mighty close to record time. Great things are expected of him in the future.

P. B. DUSENBERRY

R. S. WHARTON

When the team got to Berkley Mr. Gill wanted to be sure of all the points possible so he put Bob in the 100-yard dash. Much to the surprise of all the Californians he won the first 100 he ever ran. This was but the beginning of the day's work for him.

H. S. Osborne

"Osie" has an ability to jump, that helped him to break an Illinois record.

W. L. Kenny

"Win" was our best broad jumper.

F. N. Naughton

Frank is another of the long distance men whose work was repaid by the much cherished "I".

This race was the finish of "Bob's" work in California and made his total of 13 points in the meet. The man on the pole is Hendrixon who made such a showing in the East later and whom Bob again defeated in the conference.

G. BUCHANAN

"Bunny" was our pole vaulter and a good one, too.

S. H. WALLACE

"Sam" came out late but when he got started he got over the hurdles in good time.

D. O. HOWARD

"Humpy" Howard had the pleasant job of playing second fiddle to Osborne in the high jump. He was a pole vaulter worth noticing.

THE FOURTH ANNUAL RELAY CARNIVAL

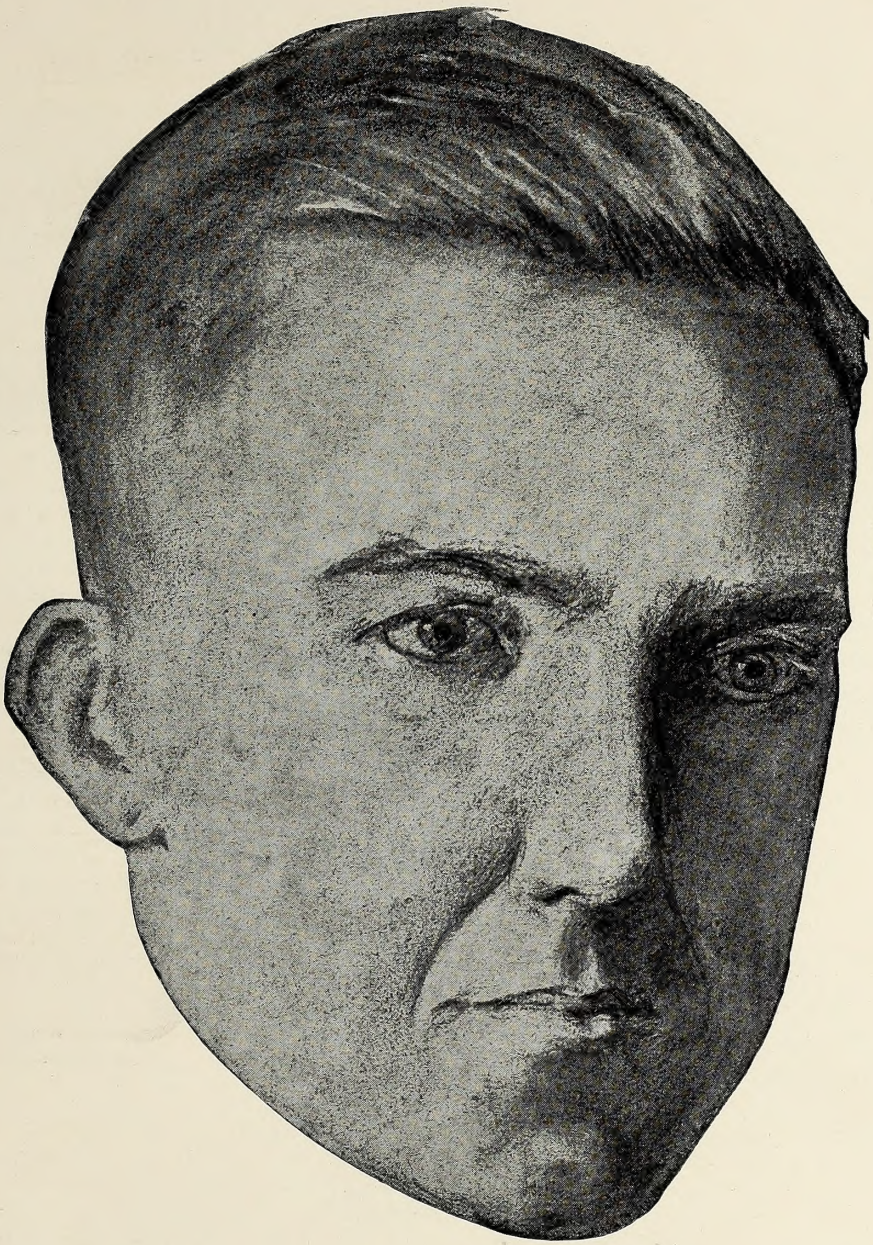

On March 5, 1921, three hundred and ninety-two athletes, the stars of forty-two universities, colleges, and high schools, competed in the Armory for the Fourth Annual Relay Carnival. From the first crack of the starter's pistol by Martin Delaney to the finish of the one mile university relay, the carnival was a great success. In addition to the seven big relay events, which of course were the outstanding features of the meet, there were special events for the tracksters, and the competition for the All-around Championship. The proteges of Harry Gill showed their superiority in both the relay and special events. The Orange and Blue runners captured the two mile and four mile relays, and placed third in the University Medley race. The record of 8 minutes, 4 and 4-5 seconds established by Chicago in the two mile relay was tied by the team composed of McGinnis, Donohoe, Dave Brown and Yates. The four mile relay team set a new record of 18 minutes, 35 and 4-5 seconds. Patterson, McGinnis, Yates, and Wharton carried the baton. After a gruelling battle with Purdue and Illinois, Ames tied Georgetown's 1920 record to win the University Medley. The University of Pennsylvania with Earl Eby as anchor man romped off with the one mile university relay for another Carnival record, covering the distance in 3 minutes and 29 seconds. Illinois entered no team in that event. A third record was broken when Oak Park scampered away with the one mile interscholastic relay in 3 minutes and forty seconds. Michigan scored second in the one mile and two mile relays.

In the individual events the Indians garnered 18 points which was one better than the score of Michigan. Notre Dame and Nebraska followed with 12 and 10 points respectively. Phil Donohoe captured the 600 yard special, and Dave Brown added five more points with first in the 1000 yard special. Dave Fields landed third in the 300 yard special, another new feature of the Carnival. Dewey Alberts, who a week later broke the world's indoor high jump record, did not come up to expectations, and tied Walker of Michigan and Paige of Ames with a leap of six feet, three-quarters inches, which established a new Carnival record. He also placed second in the broad jump. Burkholder was the most consistent performer for the Maize and Blue of Michigan, but he was forced to take the dust of Yates and Dave Brown.

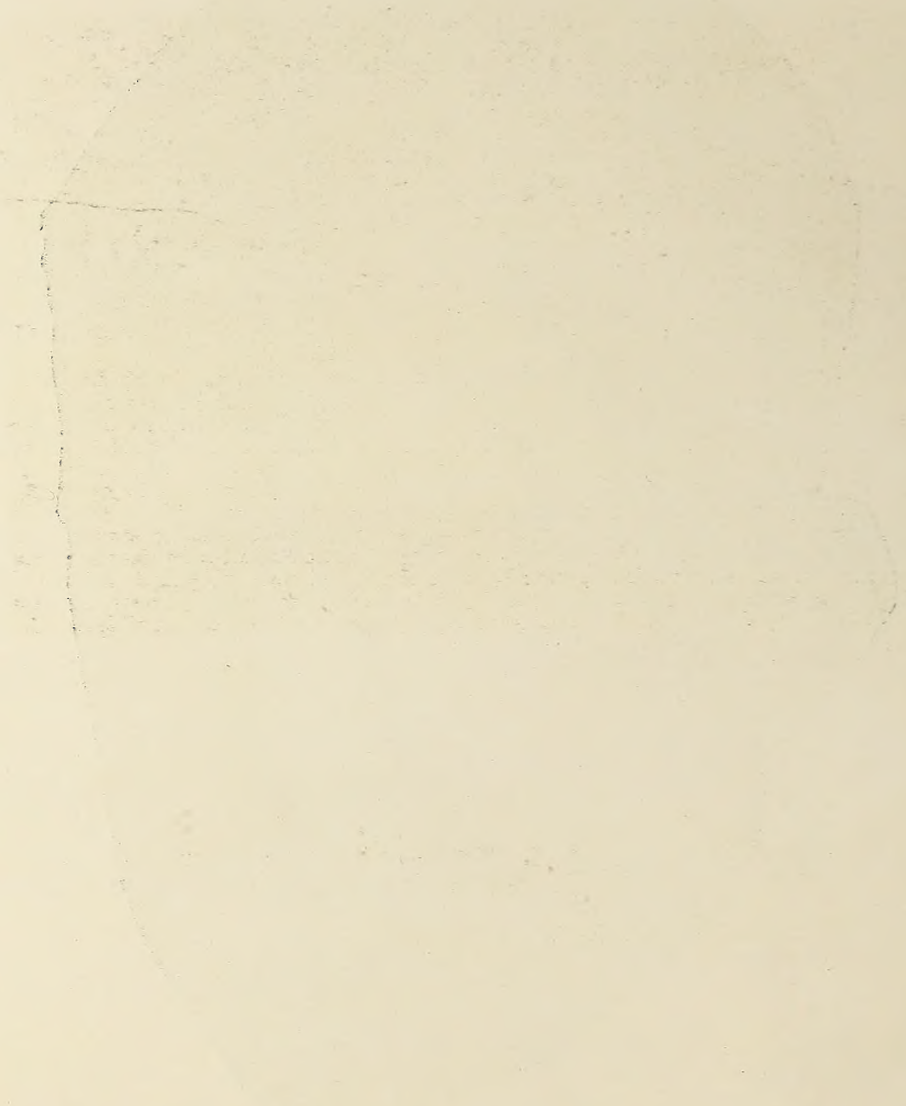

The All-around Championship centered into a lively competition between Osborne of Illinois and Hamilton of Missouri who won the event last year. Hamilton finally won out. Mathias of Illinois placed fourth.

The success of the Carnival definitely assures Illinois the lead position in indoor track ratings of America. Every race was hotly contested and with few exceptions the finishes brought the big crowd to its feet. The entrants were representative of the stars of the entire country. The showing of the Missouri Valley contestants was especially noteworthy, for they outclassed the conference teams with the exception of Illinois and Michigan.

The credit for the excellent showing of the Illinois trackmen is due in a very large measure to Coach Harry Gill, the founder of the Carnival. With each succeeding year the Indoor Relay Carnival is growing in importance and prestige in sport circles, and will soon attain the enviable title of the "Penn Relays of the West."

1920 BASEBALL SEASON

LUNDGREN, Coach

SALZENSTEIN, Manager

The baseball team, under the guidance of "Potsy" Clark, started their mid-winter training in the new Armory January 29, 1920. The pitchers received additional coaching for one week from Grover Cleveland Alexander of the Cubs. Spring practice began in earnest when the team went outside in the early part of March. A squad of fifteen men made the annual southern training trip through Mississippi and Alabama. Although the weather was cold and rainy during their stay, eight of the ten scheduled games were played, Illinois winning five and losing three.

Illinois opened the Conference season by defeating Purdue three to two. The next game, with Iowa, proved to be a pitchers' battle from start to finish between Ryan and Hamilton. Hamilton, the rangy pitcher from Iowa, had the edge on Ryan, and Illinois lost.

The game at Iowa saw the tables turned, with Illinois winning two to one, as Ryan out-classed the big pitcher by holding them down to two hits. Purdue and Wisconsin next fell before the Indians. The team was going good until Ohio put a stop to their winning streak by a ninth inning rally, defeating them six to five. The feature of the game was a triple play made by Illinois with none out and three on bases. At Ann Arbor, Michigan came from behind and nosed out a five to four victory in the ninth inning. Perfect fielding by both teams was the feature of the day. The traveling California team interrupted the Conference season long enough to defeat Illinois eight to four. At this time Illinois made the poorest showing of the year.

The game played with Wisconsin during the Interscholastic meet was another real thriller. With two out, and one on base, "Julie" Mee drove the pill over the left fielder's head and through the fence for a home run. The climax of the season came when Illinois trounced Michigan, the Conference champions, to the tune of eight to one in the final game of the year.

For nearly twenty years G. Huff has been active as a baseball coach at Illinois. His record has never been excelled by any baseball coach, past or present. So, with the retirement of George Huff, goes the retirement of the greatest basball coach in the history of the game. "Potsy" Clark, once "G's" pupil, later his successor, should be commended on his splendid showing this last season. It is regretted by every one that "Potsy" will be lost to the coaching staff next year, as he has recently been appointed football coach of the Michigan "Aggies."

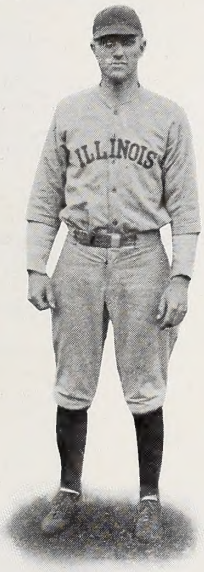

Carl Lundgren, one of the most noted of G. Huff's many pupils, has been secured to coach baseball next year. He leaves Michigan after a record of successes second only to that of his famous teacher. His greatest problem next year will be to develop a pitching staff to fill the vacancies left by Ryan, Hiekes and Wrobke. In Captain-elect Johnson, Crossley, McCurdy, Crangle, and Mee, he has a good nucleus of veterans, and with men like Barnes, McCann, Stewart, Daugherty, Banker, and Hellstrom from the Freshman team, he has a wealth of material from which to select good men.

The Trojan efforts of "Shorty" Kissinger at the far corner could not halt the travelling Bruins.

H. R. Ryan

Captain "Mickey" pitched most of the conference games. He was speedy, clever, and a consistent hurler, commanding respect from the batters who faced him. His vacancy will be hard to fill this spring.

E. T. Johnson

A sprained ankle could not keep this fighting Indian out of the game. The captaincy was well placed, for "Tom" knows the game and how it should be played.

"Julie's" favorite stunt was a four-base wallop, and the way he used to round third was a sight worth seeing. "Burt" Ingwersen is coaching him along to complete his circuit.

J. E. MEE

"Julie," only a sophomore, is hailed as the "Babe" Ruth of the conference. At short stop he covered a great deal of territory. We expect great things from "Julie" this season.

"Sam" labored three long years before his ability as a pitcher was recognized. His reputation was set on the southern training trip, and he lived up to it.

S. I. HEIKES

"Burt" had the valuable habit of hitting where they aren't and when we wanted them.

F. D. WROBKE

"Dewey" was the youngest pitcher on the squad, and he completed his third year of Varsity baseball with an enviable record.

"Bill" is a catcher of exceptional ability, for he keeps his teammates fighting and full of pep all the time. He played his last and best game against Michigan.

W. K. KOPP

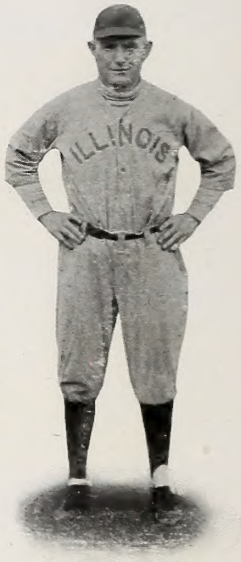

McCurdy was a versatile player, and showed his wares brilliantly both behind the bat and on the bases.

F. ENGLISH

Frank was the fastest man around the initial sack in the Conference, although he performed at second base. His batting prowess was shown for he is one of the three who made home runs against "Slicker" Parks.

"Burt" was a first base man of unusual ability, and his consistent work won him a place in the hearts of all Illini fans. He made his Ninth "I" on the 1920 baseball team.

B. A. INGWERSEN

"Julie" connected with the first ball "Slicker" Parks pitched for a round trip, and started the victory over Michigan that took the sting of disappointment from the entire season.

R. HAAS

After two years absence in the Navy, "Ray" made things hot for the regular outfielders. He sustained a sprained ankle early in the season, but played a consistent game in the outer gardens.

"Shorty" guarded the far corner of the diamond for three consecutive years in a most commendable fashion. Steady, always where he should be, and giving all he had all the time, he was a true Indian. He was the unanimous selection for the various all-star teams last year.

D. KISSINGER

"Burt" is showing his favorite stunt of keeping the base runners close to the bag.

R. W. Reichle

In left field and at the bat "Dick" was equally talented, and was one of the best hitters that "Potsy" possessed.

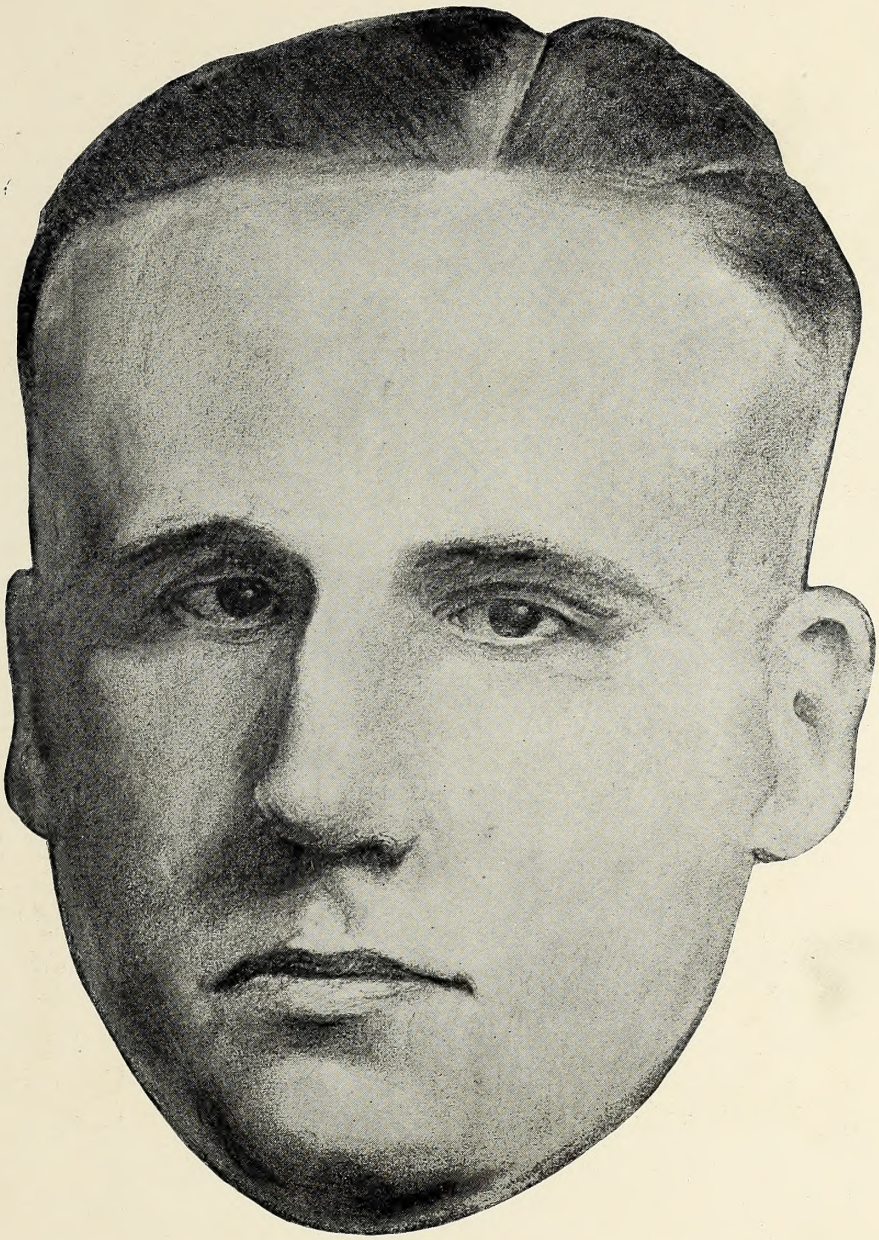

C. F. Crossley

Crossley, another sophomore, made a remarkable showing for his first year on the team. His career began at second base, but was shifted later to center field. He is an exceptionally good hitter.

H. H. McCurdy

"Mac," another sophoore, made a very creditable showing behind the bat, along with a high batting average. "Mac" will be heard from this season.

SUMMARY OF THE BASEBALL SEASON

COACH WINTERS

With only a handful of veteran players available and facing the task of installing an entirely new system of play, Coach Winters faced a task when he came to Illinois in the fall of 1920. To help matters along, "Chuck" Carney, one of the best basketball players who ever wore an Illinois suit, suffered a serious injury to his knee in the last football game of the season and this kept him on the bench during the early part of the year.

The large squad that reported to the new coach early in the season was gradually cut down from time to time, and when Christmas came twelve men were retained for the vacation practice. Nebraska, one of the strongest teams in the Missouri Valley, came for a two weeks practice session.

The Conference season opened January eighteenth with Chicago. With four veterans from last year's championship team, the Maroons came down confident of winning the opening game. The game was a thriller throughout, and when the gun cracked the score was 29 all. In the extra period, Hellstrom endeared himself to Illini rooters by caging two difficult ringers that put the game on ice.

The Indians, playing their first game on a foreign floor, went down before the Badgers in a rough game, losing only because of their inability to locate the basket. They staged a great come-back at Minnesota, however, taking the game in the last few seconds of play with a score of 23 to 22.

At Purdue the Boiler-makers were given the worst trimming they ever received from an Illinois five, losing 39 to 26. Carney made his first appearance in the line-up, and celebrated his come-back by playing a brilliant game. Ohio was completely snowed under in the next contest, the Illini holding a regular field day, winning 46 to 11.

Minnesota and Wisconsin were each defeated in turn, which put the Illinois five in first place. Purdue, smarting under the defeat that the Illini had given them early in the season, caught them going bad and set them down 29 to 19. The Indians had any number of shots, but couldn't locate the basket.

Ohio was taken into camp after an exciting game in which Blair of the Buckeye quintet kept his team in the running by seven long ringers.

With the championship at stake, Michigan defeated the scrapping five after one of the greatest games ever played on the Illinois floor. The game was in doubt until the last minute of play when Miller, with two long sensational shots, took the game for the Wolverines. A triple tie for the championship resulted.

With Captain-elect Carney, Walquist, Collins, Reitsch, Sabo, and Hellstrom back, and with a few others recruited from Coach Bearg's crack Freshman squad, Coach Winters can be expected to develop another great team.

C. W. VAIL, JR.

CAPTAIN VAIL

Vail led the Illini five in scoring, his long shots pulling many of the games out of the fire. His defensive playing was good all the time.

C. R. CARNEY

CARNEY

"Chuck," handicapped by a weak knee, gave all he had. He was the most guarded man on the team, but put in his share of the ringers.

J. E. MEE

MEE

"Julie" speeded up the Illini offensive considerably when in the line-up. Bad luck in hitting the basket was all that kept him from being one of the greatest players Illinois ever had.

WALQUIST

"Laurie's" floor work was a revelation to the Illini rooters, and a despair to opposing coaches.

REITSCH

"Hank's" work in controlling the ball and sinking follow-up shots was a great help to the team. He should have a great year next season as he developed fast through the season this year.

COLLINS

"Hap" came through in great shape this year. The fighting spirit that he exhibited, whether in the line-up or on the bench, was most commendable. A torn ligament in his ankle slowed him up considerably in the last part of the season.

SABO

"Johnny" didn't break into the line-up until late in the season, but did so quite vigorously when the opportunity came. "The hardest defensive player I've ever seen," was the tribute given him by a wellknown critic of the game.

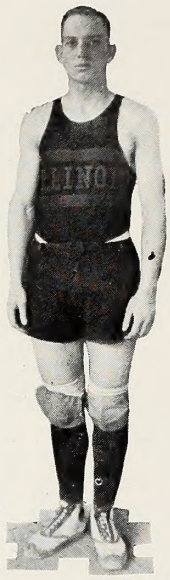

HELLSTROM

"Swede" had an uncanny ability of finding the basket when points were needed. His work in the Chicago and Purdue games will be long remembered.

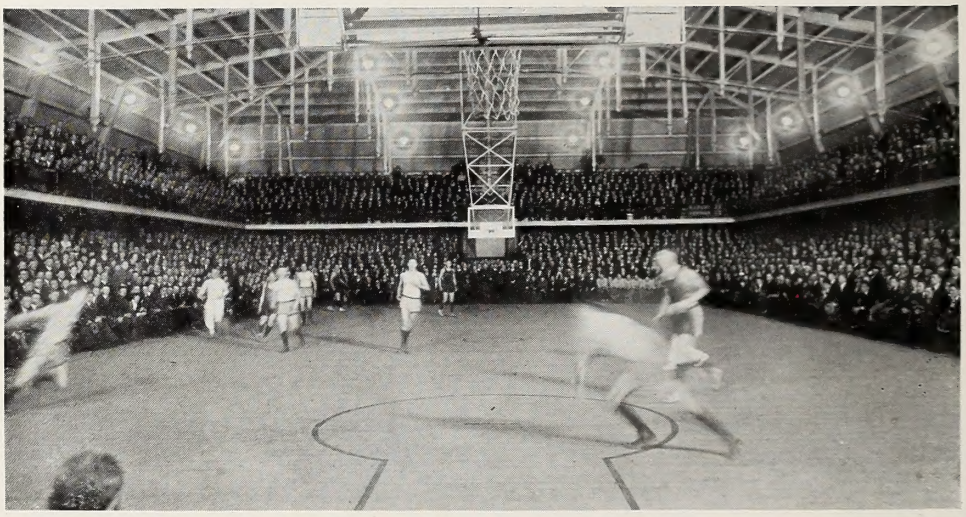

TABER

Taber gave three years of hard work to the team, always scrapping hard and never complaining if he was not included in the line-up. He displayed a most unselfish spirit.

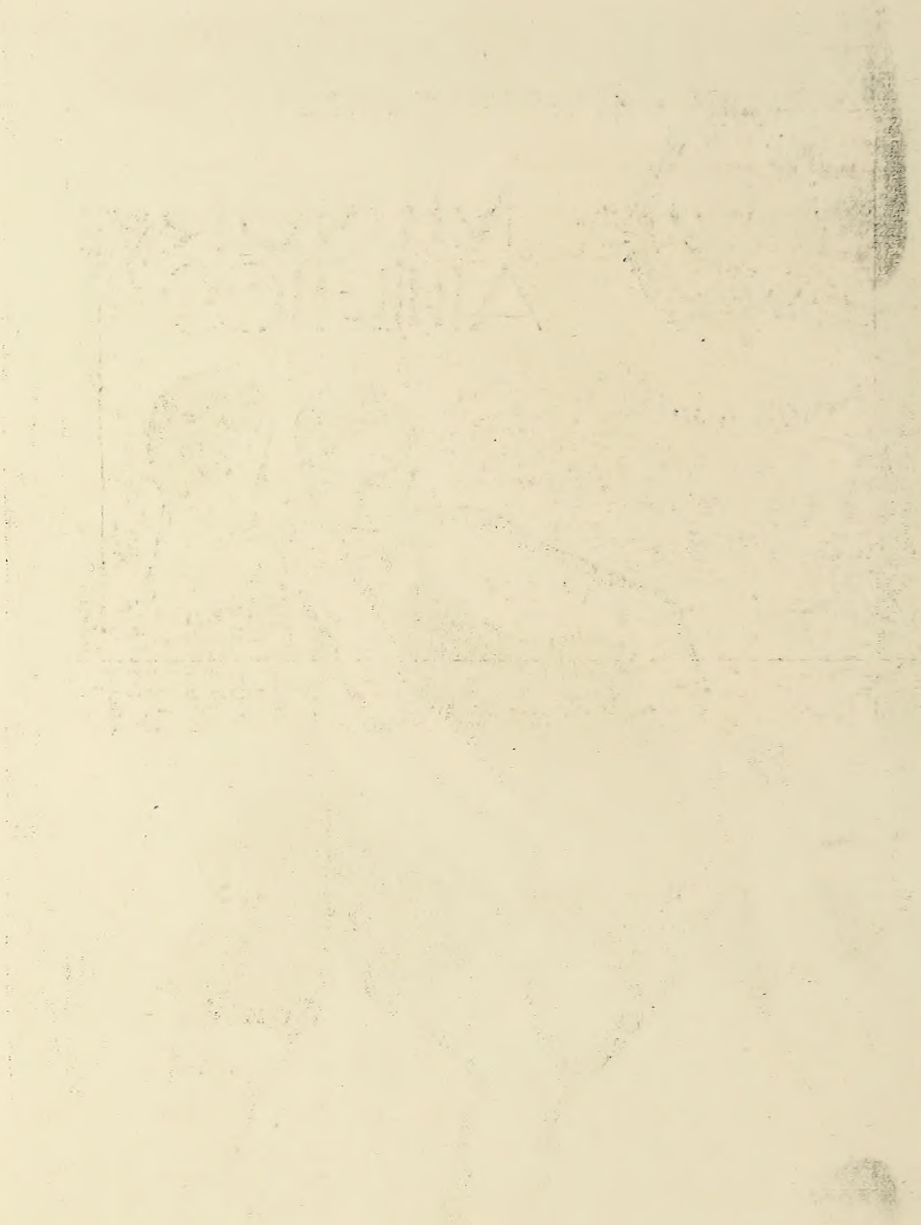

WATTS

Watts gave all he had to the team and will be missed from the squad next year. Always on the job, he gave Coach Winters a substitute of Varsity calibre.

The speed of the players and the spirited encouragement from the rooters marked the Chicago game as the most exciting of the year.

TENNIS 1920

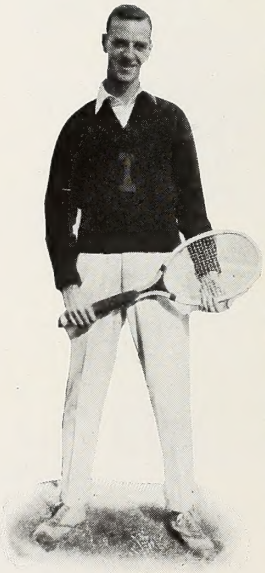

FELMLEY

Tennis was revived as a minor sport in the Spring of 1920, for the first time since the war period. No one was detailed as coach, the players finding their own way through difficulties of play. A good schedule was played, opening with Northwestern at Urbana on May first. Illinois took the match six matches to nothing. A week later Milliken was sent back with a similar beating. The following day Purdue was the attraction. Illinois won one of the two singles matches and the doubles for a two to one victory. The scheduled match with Chicago was prevented by rain, which was probably a fortunate occurrence for the Illini record. On the matches away, Illinois again beat Northwestern and broke even at Columbus. The final match of the season was with the barnstorming Californians. The westerners administered a six to nothing beating, but the match saw the best tennis of the season. Bates and Levy of California were without doubt the best performers of the year on our courts.

BROWN

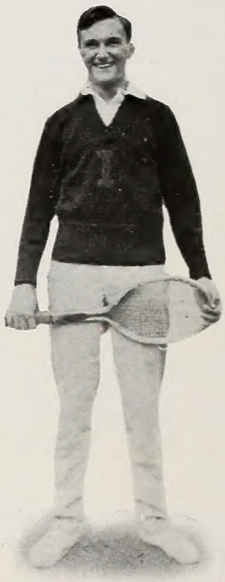

In the conference tournament of May 27, 28, and 29 at Chicago, all the Illinois men were eliminated by Chicago in the first round except John Flemley, who succumbed to Vories of Chicago in the third round. In the doubles, Felmley and Brown broke into the semi-finals only to lose to the Chicago team of Vories and Segal in straight sets. The title was eventually taken by Wesbrook of Michigan after some good matches.

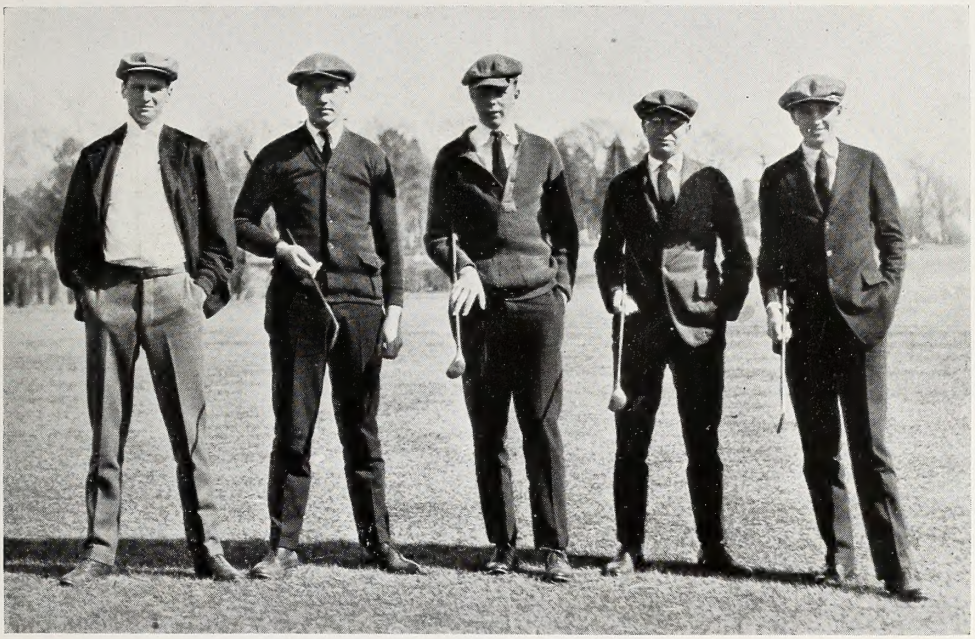

STRAWBRIDGE

The outlook for the future is good. Felmley is the only man lost from the team, and there are many promising players on the courts daily. Under the guidance of Coach Bearg another creditable team should develop in 1921. Of the men who played, Felmley was the best from day to day, having more experience and better strokes, while Brown was notable for his steadiness and persistence rather than brilliance of stroke. Preucil is a heady performer with a bright future, while Strawbridge, although given to steady play, shows at times a real brilliance.

These were awarded a minor "I": John R. Felmley, Lyle C. Brown, George Preucil, Ewart Strawbridge.

The last season brought the re-establishment of Golf as a varsity sport here at Illinois, which had been suspended since before the war. With the beginning of the school year about twenty candidates reported to show their skill with the old "pill and mallett." From this material Coach Sassman succeeded in finding five men of crack'em calibre: Johnny Frederickson, former Oklahoma champion; Walter Anderson, Jack Needler, Morris Le Bosque, and Theodore Collier. All the men had had considerable tournament experience.

The team got into action for the first time in the Western Inter-collegiate Championship Tournament held at the Olympia Fields Country Club near Chicago Heights, Illinois, in the early part of October, 1920. The team placed fourth out of the nine university teams entered. Next came a dual meet with Northwestern, and Illinois was victorious here at Urbana, winning 8 points to 4. In the return match at Edgewater Country Club, Chicago, Northwestern came out victor 6 points to 4.

During this spring a dual meet is to be played with Chicago, and possibly with Drake and Wisconsin. If the team shows well in these matches, in all probability it will go East to partake in the Eastern Inter-collegiate Tournament held in June.

INTRA-MURAL ATHLETICS

Intra-Mural athletics for the year 1920-21 took a big stride forward with a record of nearly 3,500 men participating and over 100 Intra-Mural "I's" were awarded to members of championship teams of the various departments. This unusual record was due chiefly to the untiring efforts of E. J. Manley, director of Intra-Mural activities.

Class football started October 15 and was finished October 29 with the seniors holding the championship with a thousand percent average.

Seventy-five soccer enthusiasts, working under the direction of Captain J. M. McKendrick, played two schedules. The College of Commerce won the laurels in the school division and the freshmen proved to be superior in the class section.

Playground ball was experimented with in the fall and fourteen fraternities entered teams. Kappa Sigma took the silver loving cup in this sport.

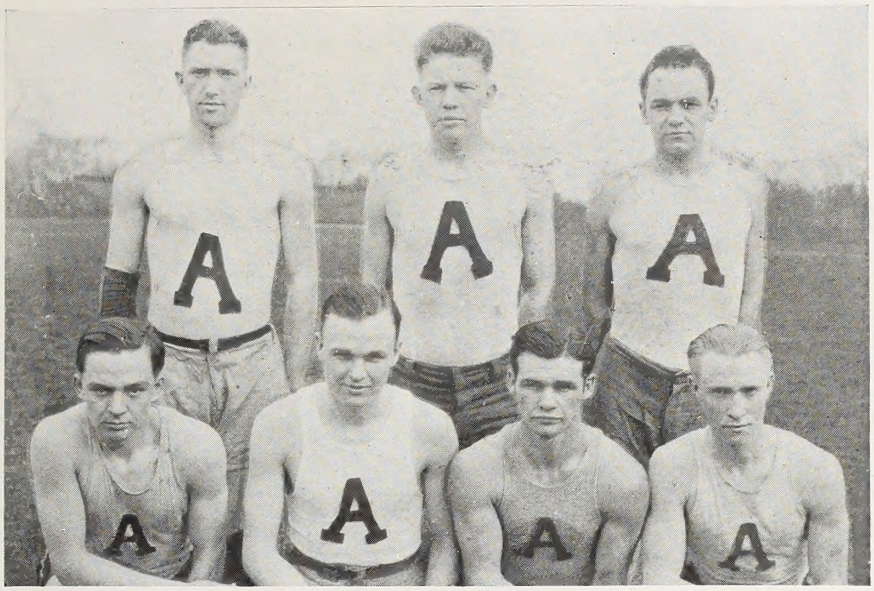

Water basketball brought out eleven fraternity teams and six independent teams to try for aquatic supremacy. Beta Theta Pi completed the schedule with a thousand percent and won the championship cup.

Immediately following basketball came baseball, with an entry list of over fifty teams. The annual outdoor track meet exceeded all previous meets with a record entry of 250 tracksters.

It is a realization that Intra-Mural athletics has gained a solid position in the life of the University The ambitions of the athletic officials to have every man competing will soon be a certainty if the Intra-Mural department progresses in the same way.

For the second consecutive season the quintet of Phi Kappa won the Fraternity Basketball championship.

The fast-travelling Apaches repeated their last year's success in again winning the championship in the Intra-Mural Basketball Tournament, defeating Phi Kappa, 37-26.

Tau Kappa Epsilon came thru a long schedule in the Intra-Mural Baseball Tournament in the spring of 1920, and defeated Kappa Sigma for the championship cup.

At Homecoming time the Seniors defeated the Freshmen and maintained a thousand percent average. The Juniors took second place in the tournament, while the Freshman and Sophomores trailed for third and fourth places.

Intra-Mural soccer is gaining greatly in popularity, and eight teams went into action. The College of Commerce team proved superior in the college league.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF ENGINEERS

Founded at Chicago, Illinois, 1915
Two Hundred Active Chapters

STUDENT CHAPTER

Established at Illinois 1917

The American Association of Engineers is the largest national engineering society, with a membership of thirty thousand. Its activities are non-technical; its objects are "to raise the standards of ethics of the engineering profession, and to promote the economic and social welfare of engineers."

The local student chapter has an active membership of over two hundred, including prominent faculty men and engineering students of all courses and classes. In line with the objects of the national organization, it tries to further the interests of A. A. E. and to become acquainted with social and economic questions, industrial problems, and the like which confront the engineering profession and which are necessarily somewhat neglected in engineering courses.

In addition, the local chapter has this purpose always before it: to take the initiative and an active part in every project which has for its object the betterment of the College of Engineering as a whole, or the improvement of individual engineering students.

FOREWORD

TO the he or she (or it) who happens to disapprove of the material herein presented, let a word be said.

Every letter reproduced, picture and a major portion of the scandal and mud thrown at you was presented to the Roast Section Editor by a fraternity brother or a sorority sister of yours. Ponder on that before you rise in wrath.

Remember, of such is publicity.

And a knock, in certain scattered instances, is a boost.

To every such invertebrate,

LI'L ALICE IN BLUNDERLAND

Li'l Alice In Blunderland

(Being a tour of Modern Greece in America, personally conducted by the Mad Hatter.)

"Six times six is thirty-six and eight is ninety-two," sang the Mad Hatter as he and Alice rounded the corner at Fifth and Green streets shortly after downing their third coke, (the drink was getting under his hat.)

"Yes, yes I know," murmured Alice. "But Ben Bolt, I mean Mr. Hatter, what is this place here.

"Oh that, that is the Delta Upsilon eating club, pay no heed, "said the Hatter, "rather, gaze on this next building, where live the Psi Upsilon athletes. All athletes used to live at the D. U. house, but that was when Potsy Clark was in school. Now the Psi U's?—ever hear of the ancient custom of the Mohammedans? How they turn their faces to the east at the call to prayer? Well that custom has been taken over by the Psi U's. They hung Dep's and Chuck Carney's pictures on the east wall so they could include them too. They are noted for speedy pledging in the summer time and that's about all.

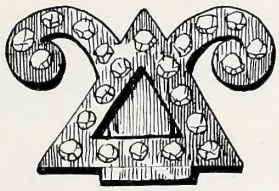

"Now on our left," (they were turning toward John on Fourth street, "we behold the Chi Phi's. That is Sadie Sadler sneaking out the back way, you'll understand why when you meet the Chi Phi's personally, which Allah forbid should happen.

"The ancient barn like obstruction on our right at the top of the hill is the Alpha Delta Phi menagerie. They sing a song about "All Good Fellows live on John Street," but it was written after they moved up from Green. The Alpha Delts are famous for having had half of Theodore Roosevelt's, (kindly splitting honors with the Dekes) and for having all of Chet Davis, which is considerable. Wyn Vail is an Alpha Delt and Max Hill is half Alpha Delt, the other half is Chi Omego, or was at the last report. The white-washed stones are pretty but they don't mean anything."

"What's that?" Alice interrupted, "Did you speak?"

"Oh yes, yes," returned the Hatter who had been abstractedly humming:

"There lived a man in our town
And he was wondrous wise
Until he went stark staring mad
And joined the Delta Phi's."

"I was just about to say that we would stand here a few moments and gaze about fraternity row—(pronounce that to rhyme like 'oh' not 'how.')

"Across the street we gaze on (let me whisper) the mauseoleum of Delta Kappa Epsilon. They are said to be strong in the east—rivaling Zeta Beta Tau in some precincts. They have been going strong for years, but with "Chaunce' Comstock and 'Gene' Schobinger out of school their direction has been wrong. The Fletchers are Dekes but they spoil the record by also belonging to Sachem. D.K.E., according to the brass escutcheon so proudly displayed on the chimney, means Decayed Kinda Effectively, which, if you know Greek, says a mouthful.

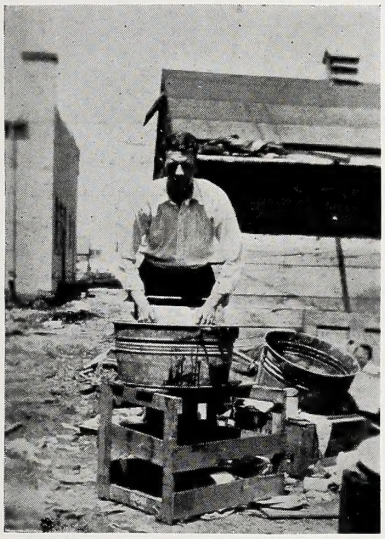

"Across from the Dekes are the Fiji's, the Permanently Gone Dead—Oh! Pardon me, I mean the Phi Gamma Delta. They are guaranteed to turn out more ecclesiastics in one college generation than a Presbyterian Bible class will in a century. The boys used to throw their empty bottles on the Phi Gam lawn until Don Erb got to collecting them to defray election expenses. Tiny Foster is one of the biggest men in his class you know—and he's a Phi Gam.

"To the right of the Fiji's we see the near-southern academy of Alpha Tau Omega. A Phi Gam once said, 'Oh! The Alpha Tau's are all right, why they have one or two good men over there. Of course they didn't mean Rosaire. In fact I can't figure who they did mean. Tommy Clark is an A. T. O. He is pretty well known about the campus. Tommy spent his college days posing for pictures and the rest of his life regretting it. The badge is a cross, signifying his attitude toward the chapter. On it are inscribed many letters all jumbled up, showing the state of inebriation of the designer of the pin when he did the dirty work.

"Kitty corner we see the Sigma Chi house. Always address the boys there as Sig's, they don't like the appellation 'Sig Chi'—well who would? Its too darned identifying. 'Sigma Chi—Sigma Chi, sing of her glories ever! George Ade does, but George is a humorist, which may account for it. Don't forget—call the boys Sigs, it pleases them because in a crowd there might be someone who'd think they were Sigma Nu's, and not realize the horrible truth."

The Hatter tuned up and hummed softly:

"Sing a song of six-pence
Pocket full of rye
If a cork will make you drunk
Come join old Sigma Chi."

"We will now walk west. 'On our right is 'Delta Tau Delta, You are our only sheltah.' That's one of their songs, written since 'Boots' Ludwig went out of business. He used to sheltah most of them most of the time. Of this gang too little cannot be said. If I wanted to be sarcastic I'd say they were all Phi Beta Kappa material. John Prescott is a Delt, he learned to run getting away from the gang so he could associate with real fellows once in a while. Too bad he didn't learn before the Delts ever caught him.

"Now Alice, be prepared for a shock. I am pointing out 'The Green House on John Street,' where the Sigma Nuts live. If you want any real dope on that gang look at Peden who is standing on the porch with his "I" sweater on to help out the gang Then gaze at Mallers and Eton—then duck and run. * * *

"Whoa, let's catch our breath. This hut, rising Phoenix-like from the Illinois mud, is the Zeta Psi house. Rex Saffer and 'Cap' Crosby will tell us the latest stories if we stop—but we might run into 'Vic' Knight, or Scotty Green, so let's not tarry.

"Now, peep around this corner carefully. The Woolworth building you see is the Beta Theta Pi shanty. It houses no less than 39 men, and no more; count 'em. The Beta's found they couldn't control the presidential election by a solid Beta vote (they were three short of a majority) so they began to cut the number of members. Each chapter now can have only 39—but they go the limit. Here they have 38½ if you count 'Fos' Poole at all. Beta Theta Pi usually tries to get half of the freshman class, but most of them seem to prefer lemon cream.

"The grain elevator that now rises before us is the town residence of a motley gang that rambled in from the south many years ago—and then stopped rambling. We refer to Sigma Alpha Epsilon, signifying "Slow and Easy." They got William McKinley some years ago—but he joined for the same reason he joined the Elks, to carry the "solid" south. Sig Alph and B.P.O.E. have the same ideals anyway. S.A.E. is strong in the south, they admit it. This is the gang that put Minerva on their badge to fool T. A., but it doesn't mean anything else. Besides McKinley they claim "Doc" Coolley, "Bob" Violette and Howard Bentley, their three other politicians.

"Kappa Sigma inhabits the work shop on our left, Alice. 'Keep Struggling' their name means, and the gang has tried hard to live up to their name, but it seems hopeless. They were formed in 1100 B.C. by Horatio Alger or some such kidder. (Their only proof to this fact is their prehistoric-conditions at present.) This gang introduced the breakfast dance at Illinois but the struggle was too great. On the occasion of the first dance it is reported the Kappa Sigs were all up for breakfast for the first time in their history. They went back to bed and haven't gotten awake yet."

The odd couple rounded the corner, passing up the confection of the Phi Sigs and hurrying past the Kappa house slowed their steps.

"And here is Phi Kappa Psi. Oh! Alice, your mother would rave if she knew I brought you near this place, but if we can dodge 'Pirk' Bass and 'Bill' Donahue we may get by safely. This gang knows the naughtiest stories, but then maybe that's because they live across from the Phi Kaps. Phi Psi isn't what it used to be. Not that it was ever very much, but you know Bert Ingwerson? Well, he used to hang out there, though he won't admit it now.

"Across the street are the Phi Kappa Sigma's. What? Oh, nothing. I understand they have some men in school now though. Yes, 'Pug' Ryan got by and 'Danny' Bash still hangs around the Arcade now and then. Now, Alice, one mustn't talk of such things since the eighteenth amendment was passed, though I will admit if you are going to talk about it the Phi Kap house is the place.

"Way over in the woods back of us are the Phi Delta Theta and Chi Beta boys. Nice boys too, I've heard. Yes, I get around quite a bit and I hear of things that no one else ever does, you know .

"And the Theta Deltas and—Who? Tike? Oh, Teke. Yes, it seems to me I have beard of them—Walquist is a Teke isn't he? Well, he's better known than the fraternity is, so it doesn"t count. And Chi Psi, didn't we talk about them? Oh, yes, that was Chi Phi wasn't it? Well Chi Psi is in school, that's right. At least I think they are. Don't a bird named Hullfish, oh, I don't mean bird of course, and another named Kaiser live there? Well they slipped when they got that pair. Must have pulled a Kappa Sig and passed the pledge buttons instead of after dinner mints. Yes of course Swede Hellstrom does play football and other games, but then if he buried himself its his own fault isn't it?

I can't imagine what you mean, unless of course you suggest that I take you past the Phi Delta Phi house, which I wouldn't do to any girl."

At this juncture a deep purple settled down over the horizon. "That's the Sigma Pi's feeling blue over the cost of their Victorian hodge-podge," the Hatter said hurridly. "Let's home Alice, this place is terrible and the Sig Pi"s are worse.

The pair hurried off singing

He was editor of the Daily Illini, the student newspaper of the University of Illinois, during his senior year, and last week he was selected to write the half-century history of that paper. The history is to be issued in book form, and the honor conferred on Dix will be better understood when it is known that there was quite a list of eligibles, most of them quite prominent in journalism.

Theta Chi Fraternity

VOLUME FIVE — NUMBER ONE

DECEMBER, 1920

Arthur W. Schmoeller.....Editor in Chief

We feel that ours is a sacred trust. Our's the duty of keeping alive a chapter of Theta Chi, of furthering her interests as an organization and consequently the interests of every man who is interested in it. We submit to you this issue of the Rho News as our statement of profits and losses and a true balance sheet of the activities of the active chapter. Read it carefully —measure it with your experiences in school or business and then form your conclusion.

Do not expect to find a chapter roll identical with that of Phi Betta Kappa. You will be disappointed if you do. Do not expect to find Rho chapter in absolute control of every campus activity because again you will be disappointed. But read between the lines, feel the fine spirit of fellowship that radiates from them

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

In the beginning may we say that Gamma Mu does not encourage social activities to any extent, particularly among our freshmen. The chapter takes the view that, after all, college is a place to increase the mentality of the individual rather than to train him in the gentle art of "fusaing." Don't take us to mean that we are all confirmed "women haters," or that we entirely neglect our social life, for taken all in all it is our aim to strike the happy medium. We plan our parties with the intention that they shall be successful, and judging from past results they are.

Sometimes men at Illinois are judged by the number of "honoraries" that come behind their names. In this line it may be easily seen that Rod is no slacker. His four years in school have been spent in honest endeavor for the betterment of Sigma Nu. He was commander of the Chapter in 1918.

EDITORIALS

The very animation and worth of a fraternity depends on its firm foundation in the alumni, those loyal men who have cherished and fostered, and watched with interest the growth of their chapter, rightly feeling it a product of their own handiwork. Sigma Nu, for this reason, has held her place as one of the strongest fraternities of the country, proudly holding the honor now of having the highest percentage of active chapters of any national fraternity since the date of its founding, January 1869. With her

Joey is the freshman "Don among ladies." He came down to school carrying his suit case and the pictures of eighteen women. He's an all around good fellow and carries a smile that never wipes off.

Holt, Arthur S. "Art", Oak Park, Ill. Civil Eng. Pledge.

Mallers fell for Buddie Stephens, Alpha Chi Omega. Closely following him Cec Smith hooked up with Phyllis Harper, Delta Gamma. Wop Murphy proudly placed his pin on Oldene Foote, a home town product, and finally Douglas Stockham, our own Stump, inveigled Ann Stilson Alpha Delta Pi into wearing the White Star of Sigma Nu. Ten thousand Swedes came through the woods!

You know we get so in the habit of taking our Fraternity for granted, a good place to sleep and eat and gather a bunch for "dealer's choice," that when we have brought home to us every once in awhile the true ideals upon which the Fraternity is founded, we cannot help but feel the extent to which we have failed to reach the ideal.

It is therefore an object to become a Beta, and there being no constitutional limit of numbers, everyone feels that he may gain his desired object if he is worthy. How few, however, do we consider worthy! for on our selectness (allow me the expression) depends our existence. The moment we open any wider the door, that moment we die. We believe our standard of qualification for membership is as high as in any other chapter.

The minutes of the subsequent meeting show that an election was held, at which Mr. Bushnell was chosen President and Mr. Reynolds Recorder. New members are named, Alvin Cole Keyse, or Keyes, as it is in the Catalogue of 1917, Charles Winslow Palmer, Timothy Dwight Pelton and Charles Rockwell Pierce. The Phi Gamma Delta

The Origin of PHI GAMMA DELTA

Brother Frank Norris, then, to make the occasion more complete, suggested that they pledge anew their faith to Phi Gamma Delta. This was immediately done, and the brothers sealed the oath by all kissing the Pig's snout—there being no Freshmen present. The evening proved so successful that they all resolved to repeat the occasion a year from that date.

Illinois Delta starts her rushing season September 14th. Harold Walker is rushing chairman and has worked faithfully throughout the summer. Perk Bass has assisted him and these two boys have lined up a good list of prospects.

The house is in excellent condition, due to the fact that Dick Evans has lived there throughout the summer and as all the brothers know, Dick certainly keeps everything in good condition. He is G. P. for the coming semester and we all believe he will be a worthy leader.

Burt Ingwersen is playing professional baseball with Mississippi in the Delta league. Ivan B. Gable is with the Aetna Insurance Co., at Hartford, Conn., and W. E. McElDowney is employed at the Simmons Hardware Co., at St. Louis, Mo. John Craft is trying to grow wheat on rocky Illinois land at Rochelle.

At present no plans have been made for homecoming, but we shall inform the alumni as soon as a definite plan is formed for this day by the university.

OMICRON—UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Dear Sisters in Gamma Phi:

When we came back to the chapter-house one hot day in September, to find it much the worse for the hurried packings of last June, it seemed hard to believe that by October 1 we would be proudly displaying fourteen pledges. Four sisters of Omicron Gamma Phis are wearing the little brown pin, Mildred Eversole, Champaign; Katherine Stubbs, Fowler, Colorado; Claire Meyer, Highland; and Sylvia Cawthorne, Chicago. The others are Beatrice Grey, St. Joseph, Michigan; Edna Oakes, Independence, Kansas; Alice Heron, Ruth Rhoades, Kansas City; Ida Herren, St. Louis; Anna Bals, Joliet; Florence Johnson, Del Miller, Chicago; Thelma Marion, Louisiana, Mo.; Connie Vercoe, Highland Park. We are also glad to welcome as an affiliate member, Frances Scott, one of the founders of Psi Chapter.

Pledge day has always been a regular riot here, with gaily beribboned autos going up and down fraternity row, the curbstones full of boys throwing serpentine, and a general spirit of bohemianism. This year, efforts were made to instill a little law and order into the afternoon. A parade formed and proceeded inconspicuously to the Dunlap farm, where cider and doughnuts were served. Open house that night showed little improvement, for numberless callers visited all the houses to congratulate the chapters and the pledges, and pass judgment on the punch as well.

We are now busy getting our pledges started in all branches of college activity, and several of them already show promise in literary and dramatic lines.

We are looking forward to one of the most successful years we have ever had, and wish the best of fortune to all our other chapters.

Sincerely,
BLISS SEYMOUR.

Dear Sisters:

"There's a place that I know
Where all good freshmen go.
Ask me where? Yes, 'tis Gamma Phi.
And at each rushing time
Every freshman does pine
For a bid to join Gamma Phi.
And to each and every miss

Comes a feeling of bliss
On that morn when she's asked to dine.
With a hug and a kiss
She is claimed as a sis
To the good chapter Eta
Of Gamma Phi Beta,
Dear old Gamma Phi Beta of mine."

BEG YOUR PARDON

THE TRIBUNE of Jan. 29 referred to Kappa Alpha Theta as the oldest Greek letter organization for college women. Members of Pi Beta Phi protest that their organization is older. The New International Encyclopedia (page 199) says Kappa Alpha Theta was the first, founded in 1870, but adds that "Pi Beta Phi (originally I. C. sorosis) was founded in 1867." It would seem that Pi Beta Phi is oldest as an organization but not as a Greek letter organization.

EVIDENTLY.

ILLINOIS CHAPTER ranked No. 21 in scholarship for the second semester 1919-1920. Sigma Rho Bulletin reports: "The fraternity averages for the last semester placed Beta in 21st place with 3.06 average. 3.43 was the best average of the social group, and 4.02 was the average of Farm House in the professional group. The general average was raised several points. The high average of the sororities was 3.61 by Gamma Phi Beta." Evidently the Illinois boys must buckle down to their books a bit before they can reflect much credit upon Beta Theta Pi so far as their scholarship is concerned.

I came to Illinois fresh from my conquest of Oak Park high school. I allowed the fraternities to look me over. I smiled in contempt at most of them. I often do this. I became a freshman politician and the old order changed. I have done noteworthy things on this campus of which everyone knows and too, I have done much which is not known. I was early pledged to Epsilon Gamma Omricon, I even cast a white ball in my favor.

I knew I was worthy. I developed physically during my first years, in chest expansion and hat measurement. I learned, too, the delicate shades of the voice and I defy other whispering politicians to compete with me. I associated with the Hand Shakers and rode the fence, always performing last minute flops to that side which won. I never lost. MUCH I have been PANned like HELL -- NIC and I both. ride after that date with Jack in night Had a real foolish good time at Bradley's with Ruth & Harry.

98 STUDENTS' HANDBOOK
JANUARY, 1921
m. 2 7 Fergy wired came at 6 o'clock
m. 3 went back with him - date to Mozis on aft with him
Instruction Resumed 1 p. m.

Suffice to say, the girl - Ah! Permit us to introduce Olga E. Nilson, Chicago, 35 (hours of credit, not years) who resides at the Alpha Delta Pi house (when not dining with Fergy..) Fergy, the object of her tender desire is Hugh Ferguson, a S.P.E. (we may be cussing him for all we know) and president of the American Legion. For the rest read for yourself.

The above record, notes from a student hand book was obtained only after a half hour of holding hands with one of the A.D. Pi sisters, but it is worth the price.

What Is Research?

SUPPOSE that a stove burns too much coal for the amount of heat that it radiates. The manufacturer hires a man familiar with the principles of combustion and heat radiation to make experiments which will indicate desirable changes in design. The stove selected as the most efficient is the result of research.

Suppose that you want to make a ruby in a factory—not a mere imitation, but a real ruby, indistinguishable by any chemical or physical test from the natural stone. You begin by analyzing rubies chemically and physically. Then you try to make rubies just as nature did, with the same chemicals and under similar conditions. Your rubies are the result of research—research of a different type from that required to improve the stove.

Suppose, as you melted up your chemicals to produce rubies and experimented with high temperatures, you began to wonder how hot the earth must have been millions of years ago when rubies were first crystallized, and what were the forces at play that made this planet what it is. You begin an investigation that leads you far from rubies and causes you to formulate theories to explain how the earth, and, for that matter, how the whole solar system was created. That would be research of a still different type—pioneering into the unknown to satisfy an insatiable curiosity.

Research of all three types is conducted in the Laboratories of the General Electric Company. But it is the third type of research—pioneering into the unknown—that means most, in the long run, even though it is undertaken with no practical benefit in view.

At the present time, for example, the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company are exploring matter with X-rays in order to discover not only how the atoms in different substances are arranged but how the atoms themselves are built up. The more you know about a substance, the more you can do with it. Some day this X-ray work will enable scientists to answer more definitely than they can now the question: Why is iron magnetic? And then the electrical industry will take a great step forward, and more real progress will be made in five years than can be made in a century of experimenting with existing electrical apparatus.

You can add wings and stories to an old house. But to build a new house, you must begin with the foundation.

TID-BITS FROM A STUDENT'S DIARY

Sidney, Ill., (between semesters). Was waiting for a train at Sidney today. Saw Prof. Heironymous get off the train when I did and we went in the restaurant to eat. The guy waiting on the customers was about five feet tall. He waited on everyone except Heironymous, who sat there and was getting impatient. At last he pipes up: "Well, young man, do you feed your customers?"

"Yep," the little waiter replies, "we feed customers, but we don't aim to fill silos."

If your senior negative is on file at this studio a letter to us at any time will bring to you a duplicate order of your senior photo.

Who's Who And Why

When you're a long, long way from home, and your head is crammed full of just all the learning that you possibly can stuff into it without giving yourself a headache, that's when you crave one of mother's meals of real honest-to-goodness foods.

Now, the Who's Who and Why in this little narrative is just a great big mail-order grocery house in Peoria, Illinois, that has made a specialty of handling fine quality foods for almost half a century.

If all you folks who enjoy real foods will just mention our name to your commissary, ask him to write for one of our catalogs, and then send a trial order so he will be convinced of the extra fine quality and extremely attractive prices of our merchandise, he'll know Who's Who and Why, and you folks who have to eat what he puts before you will also know.

We have a special department which looks after the interests of boarding house, fraternity and sorority business.

CREED OF SIGMA KAPPA.

To uphold the banner of Truth at whatever cost; to walk in the way of our Founders, attaining true scholarship for its own sweet sake eschewing the false veneer of culture; striving for high nobility of character rather than the applause of worldlings. To follow the path of Purity that our thoughts and our deeds may glorify God and his goodness; to be sincere and steadfast of purpose, giving of our best to each task or duty as it presents itself; to be free from that pettiness of the narrow-minded--snobbery; believing that the inner personality is far above paltry wealth or appearance. To give ourselves fully in the loving service of others, keeping our hearts ever in tune with Infinite through the beautiful and true, and our minds always open to the teachings of bird and bee and blossom--thus shall we be ever loyal to our vows, to ourselves, and to Sigma Kappa.

Read the typewritten sheet on the left very carefully, sneeze twice and then repeat in a low voice the Chinese incantation against witchcraft. After this take a dose of quinine and swear never to believe again, anything that anyone tells you. With precaution you may live after the experience.

The greatest bit of writing since Babe Ruth wrote his personal experiences of the "movie" business. A clear explanation of how Alpha Chi chapter of T. N. THE TRADE MARK OF QUALITY
MADE FAMOUS BY GOOD IMPLEMENTS

The "leaping deer" trade-mark, shown above, is Deere & Company's stamp of approval.

It means that the implement carrying it was made in a John Deere factory in the John Deere way.

It distinguishes John Deere implements from inferior goods.

It is a guarantee of satisfaction—an insurance policy against disappointment.

There is a John Deere implement or machine for practically every farming operation, and each carries the John Deere trade-mark.

Look for the "leaping deer" trade-mark when you buy your farm machinery.

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING CELLER GANG OF PHI KAPPA SIGH.

Meeting called to order by Brother "Perk" Bass, acting chairman. He lays Brother Mount's 45.70 on the table and is immediately elected permanent chairman.

Brother Donahue rises: "Now when 'Slouie' Chapman was in the active chapter . . . . . " Sqeulched by the chair.

Brother Dick Evans rises to a point of order. His effort to mention a eulogy for Brother "Bart'" Macomber results in reproval by Bro. Bass.

Brother Mount: "Mr. Chairman and brothers, "The greatness of old Phi Kappa Sigh was impressed upon me on the first night I was in the house I saw a jug under Scotch McMaster's bed an' while I watched it, pretty soon 'pop' out flopped a raisin and I knew I was in the right house . . . . . "

(The chairman raps for order.)

Brother Jimmy Kamy: "I tell you boys, when Bert Ingwerson was a Phi Sigh . . . . . "

(At this juncture Brother Clevedance poked his head in the door and shouts, "Hey boys, I got a quart," and the meeting breaks up in disorder.)

The water supplied by the Champaign & Urbana Water Company to the Twin Cities is taken from 32 tube wells 160 feet deep, and is pumped into a receiving basin being ariated for the purpose of oxidizing the iron content. It is then pumped to the mechanical filters for the purpose of removing the iron. Liquid Chlorine is introduced into the water before entering the filters in the quantity of four pounds per million gallons of water. The water flows from the filter into the storage reservoirs from which it is pumped into the eighty miles of distributing mains.

College Is Over—What Next?

Your career is ahead of you, with all its opportunities and possibilities. If you are going to be a success, you must have, in addition to your professional ability, a comprehensive view of the business side of dentistry, —the side that has to do with "Dollars and Cents."

Successful dentists are realizing the importance of environment on their patients, and the effect exerted on them by modern, pleasingly appointed offices, and up-to-date equipment.

When you buy equipment for your office, select the kind that will give you the most efficient and lasting service; the kind that will save your time, and the time of your patients.

Ritter Equipment will do all of these things, and more. It will give you a big impetus on the way to financial success.

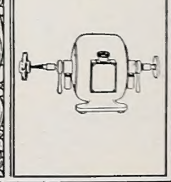

Write today for literature and description of Ritter Equipment.

Modern Office Furniture

THIS is an age of steel. Millions of tons of steel are produced each year. On every hand we see steel replacing less substantial materials. In buildings, for framework, interior trim and equipment; in railway coaches and cars; in vehicles and implements, and in many branches of progress steel is almost the governing factor.

It is therefore logical to build office furniture of steel. The inherent advantages of steel are very essential to filing equipment. Convenience, strength, durability and protection mean even more to the business man, applied to the housing of records, than to a factory building. Factories and equipment can be replaced, but records—the vitals of the business—when once destroyed can never be replaced.

Convenience in GF Allsteel Office Furniture is considered largely as a matter of design. Qualities of the basic material—steel—have been combined with correct principles of design to make GF Allsteel the highest type of office equipment. GF Allsteel is clean cut, business-like and compact, free of frills and non-essentials, dignified in appearance and wonderfully space-saving.

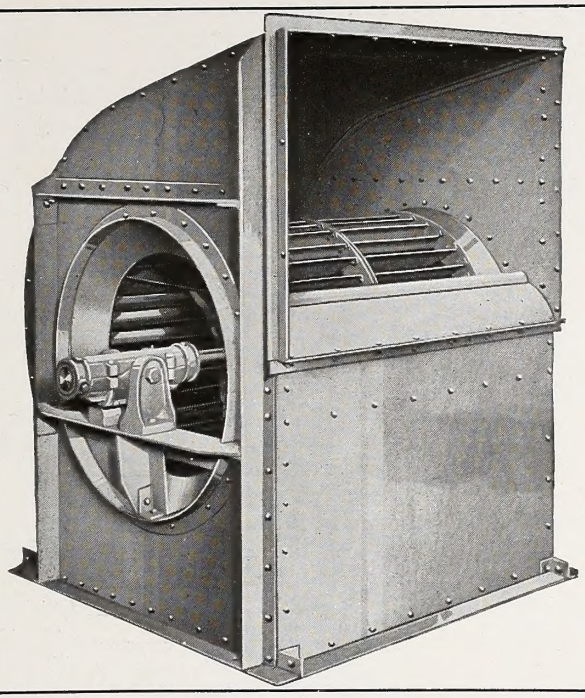

Durability is assured. GF Allsteel will last throughout a lifetime of service. Under all ordinary conditions of use, it is indestructible. Neither hot weather, heating systems or climate can affect it. Repair bills and depreciation are negligible factors.

GF Allsteel cannot burn—and its Allsteel walls are fire-resistive. When records are housed in GF Allsteel they are secure. Records are the largest single item of expense in any business. Thousands of dollars are spent to create them. Why should they not be protected?

In appearance GF Allsteel has no equal. It is beautifully finished and gives an office an air of dignity and refinement. It truly reflects the character of a business. Thousands of business men buy GF Allsteel for this advantage alone.
